Aquinas, McQuaid Score Wins

By FRANK KELLY
The Little Irish of Aquinas Institute and the Knights of McQuaid Jesuit High School scored impressive victories over top rivals this past weekend.

The Irish ripped DeSales High School of Geneva, 91-49 in a game played Sunday at the Dewey Avenue gymnasium as four members of the team scored in double figures.

In the McQuaid game, the Knights engaged a previous defeat in sensational style as they walloped Brockport 52-33 on the Knights court.

In another game played locally, the seminarians at St. Andrew's beat the Diocesan Preparatory Seminary of Buffalo for the third straight time in a two year period, 84-72.

This game was played on the St. Andrew's court. A return match will be played in Buffalo on March 8.

THE LITTLE IRISH were led in victory by Ralph Yahn with 18 and Jim Albano with 17 points.

Also scoring in double figures, scored their seventh victory in were Fred Pestorius with 15 and 10 tries this season on Saturday. OUTSCORING THEIR opponents in every quarter, McQuaid built up a quick lead and continued to add on to it throughout the entire game. They put the final crusher on Brockport by racking up 12 straight points mid-way in the final quarter to win going away, 52-33.

Jim McCarthy led his mates with 22 points on six field goals and 10 fouls. He was ably assisted by Tim Scharf who poured 23 points through the hoop.

John Woodworth scored nine points in a losing cause for Brockport. The Knights meet Jefferson High School tonight at McQuaid and they travel to Auburn Sunday to face Mt. Carmel.

AN UNIDENTIFIED St. Andrew's player goes up for a shot in the basketball game played at the minor seminary Sunday.
