

St. Patrick's Pupil Boy Of The Month

By HELEN A. BROSAN

Owego—Charles Haigh, a pupil in the fifth grade of St. Patrick's parochial school, was chosen "boy of the month" by the Owego Boys' Club. The 10-year-old is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Haigh, 105 Franklin St.

Club director Frank Molettore stated that young Haigh is the first boy to win the honor. Selection is based on church, school and club records. In school he maintains a 90-plus average. He is a member of the midjet class of the club.

HOMEMAKERS AWARD

Owego—A former student at St. Patrick's parochial school has been given the 1959 Betty Crocker award of Homemaker of Tomorrow by the Owego Free Academy.

Patricia S. Raffis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Raffis was the recipient. She received the highest score in a 50-minute written examination on home-making knowledge.

Her examination will be entered in competition with those of other schools in the state to name the Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow.

The test is designed and judged by Science Research Associates, Miss Raffis, who is a member of the 1959 senior class of the academy, was graduated from St. Patrick's in 1955.

FATHER SON DINNER

Owego—Troop 57, of St. Patrick's Church will be host for the annual father and son dinner of Boy Scouts of Tioga District.

The dinner will be served Saturday, Feb. 7, in St. Patrick's parish hall. Walter Fairlie and George Simik, of the district campaign and activities committee are co-chairmen.

The affair is limited to Boy Scouts and Explorers and their dads. More than 200 persons are expected. One of the main attractions of the evening will be the presentation of the traveling Scout award to the unit which has had the highest percentage in advancements during 1958, based on the June 30th membership.

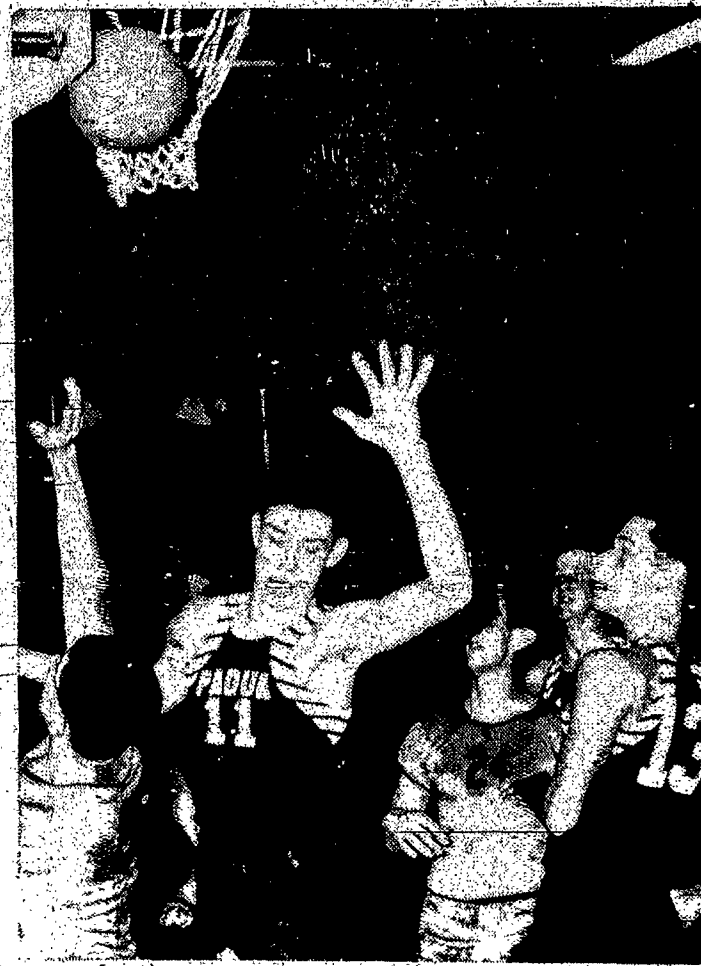

The dinner will serve as a kickoff for Boy Scout Week.

Ladies Of Charity Set Picnic Supper

Members of the St. Rose of Lima committee of Elmira Ladies of Charity will hold a picnic supper Tuesday, Feb. 10 at 312 Lake St.

Marjorie Loveland and Rosemary Sardo have been named co-chairmen.

Following the supper a business meeting will be held. Members are asked to bring their completed card rosaries to this session.

HANK SANTULLI, back to camera, one of the sparkplugs of Notre Dame-High's second half rally against Padua, pops the ball toward the basket over the outstretched hand of Marcheski of Padua. Looking on are Balzo, 24, of the Crusaders and Zembzinski, 13, of Padua.

ND Tops Padua In Close Game

Ed Rothwell's Notre Dame High eagles overcame first half difficulties to defeat a taller aggregation from St. Anthony of Padua High School, Watkins Glen last Friday, 74-65 in the ND gym.

Obviously bothered by an 18-day lay-off, the Crusaders fell behind at the half 31-26 as passes went away and the defense cracked consistently.

IN THE SECOND half, however, the team began to click and its ball hawking, tight-checking and sharp passing gradually wore down Padua.

Led by Hank Santulli, Jerry Coveney and Bill Kent, the Crusaders hit on 50 percent of their shots in the second half, compared to 30 percent in the first.

They doubled their first half score by the end of the third quarter to take a 52-46 margin into the final period.

THE CRUSADERS again outscored Padua in the last period by 22-19, to wrap up the win.

Notre Dame, by its win, snapped a three-game losing streak and ran its season's mark to 5 and 7. All five wins have been scored on the ND court.

In a preliminary game, the ND jays defeated the Padua Jay-vees, 81-53, for its 11th victory in 12 outings.

KC Slates First Friday Luncheon

Elmira Council 229, Knights of Columbus, will sponsor its fourth First Friday Luncheon of the current series Friday, Feb. 6 at noon at the Mark Twain Hotel.

Featured speaker will be Rev. Simon Hents, S.J., of St. John's Almonst Seminary, Montour Falls.

All Catholic men of the Elmira area, who receive Holy Communion on First Friday are invited to attend. The priests of the area have "seats of honor" at all First Friday luncheons.

Willis I. Larrabee and Donald A. Russell, council officers, are co-chairmen.

Fire Escape Installed At School

WORKMEN INSTALL a new fire escape at St. Patrick's School, Corning as part of the school's remodeling plan started recently. The workers also installed a second floor exit leading to the fire escape in the parish's attempt to insure more adequate safety for the school's pupils. (Corning Leader photo).
