

Elmira Area Lad Becomes Eagle Scout

The Eagle Scout Award — the highest in Scouting — was recently presented to Richard J. Sullivan, 15, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard L. Sullivan of 406 E. McCains Blvd., Elmira Heights. The Sullivan family are members of St. Charles Borromeo parish.

Member of Troop 23, Richard has been a Boy Scout for nearly 5 years and is the troop's first Eagle Scout. He attends Edison High School.

THE AWARD was presented by Kenneth O. Frazer, field executive of the Sullivan Trail Council.

A program entitled, "This is Your Life" centered around Sullivan was presented with

St. Elizabeth Guild House Girls Move Into New East Ave. Home

Rebecca Wileck, a student at Nazareth Academy, cuts her birthday cake as her fellow boarders look on.

St. Elizabeth's Guild House, 1475 East Ave., Rochester, is home for working girls and students. The new quarters can accommodate 35. Just opened in January after extensive alterations, the former Todd mansion is currently a bustling place as newcomers move into their rooms and spend free time getting acquainted with their companions at the Guild House. These pictures by Courier Journal staff photographer show typical scenes there.

Notre Dame High Notes

By JOAN DALY and JEANNINE LAWTON

Thirty-seven delegates from Notre Dame High School, Elmira, will attend the Drama Festival at Nazareth Academy tomorrow. This annual festival, sponsored by the Rochester chapter of the National Catholic Theatre Conference, offers both dramatic and social experience. Four faculty members will accompany the group.

THIS WEEK the earth science and biology students are exhibiting their wares in Room 202. After an evaluation is made, a science pin and honorable mentions will be awarded.

CATHOLIC BOOK Week will be observed by the Bookmark Club in the form of exhibits and a special meeting of the club on Wednesday, February 25. Eileen Sullivan, chairman, will speak of the slogan "Share truth—spread faith." Patricia Gardin will introduce scenes from Catholic plays dramatized by Kathleen McPherson, Janet Farke, Karen Fuller, Mary Claire Schiefel, Mary Jo Sullivan and Jody Maloney.

Mary Frances Rodzal, in charge of exhibits, is being assisted by Nancy Andrade, Rose Miliken and Jeannette Budnik.

THE STUDENT COUNCIL voted to contribute $100.00 to the football drive sponsored by the Notre Dame Athletic Association. Formal presentation was made this week to Mr. Bus Harnois, chairman of the drive.

MEMBERS of the Ushers Club will meet for their annual banquet Sunday, February 22, at six o'clock. Payment should be made through the home-

Corning Weddings

CONGRATULATIONS to Mary Mack, winner of the grand prize in the safety slogan contest, and to runner-up, Marilyn Bernabel and Margaret Laux. Remember — "You're always a winner when safety is your game."

Corning — The wedding of Miss Clara Ann Giardina and William Lante Haller took place Saturday, Feb. 7, at 10 a.m. in St. Mary's Church of Corning. The Rev. Thomas H. Watts performed the double ring service and celebrated the nuptial Mass.

The bride, who lived at 164 E. Putney St., Corning, is the daughter of Thomas Giardina of Painted Post.

Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James L. Haller of Canton, Ohio.

The bride was escorted to the altar by her brother, Pvt. Thomas Giardina Jr.

The honor attendant was Mrs. Phillip Ritz of Corning. Bridesmaids were Miss Helen Merola and Miss Leah Reynolds, both of Corning.

Mr. Ritz was best man. Charles Giardina of Painted Post, Dennis Hyde of Millerton and Walter Maxwell of Lindley RD 2 ushered.

Honor Group Lists Msgr. Cleary

Monsignor Donald M. Cleary, chaplain of the Newman Club of Cornell University, will address the National Honor Society of Nazareth Academy and faculty guests at the annual society banquet Monday, February 23, in the school cafeteria.

Monsignor's topic will "cover college life on a secular campus."

A PATRIOTIC theme of red, white and blue decorations will array the cafeteria. Committees will be headed by the four officers: Patricia Edwardwald, Suzanne Troy, Jean Meek, and Mary Pfeiffer.

Each member of the Honor Society will escort one member of the faculty to the dinner. Songs, written by the girls, will be sung.

Patricia Roney, senior, is toastmistress.
