'TREND HOUSE' SEEN AT PADDY HILL

"New ideas for family living" is the theme of the First Annual Trend House introduced at Paddy Hill on Sunday afternoon, March 15. Caldwell & Cooke, developers of Paddy Hill, have featured four other models since the formal opening of the Paddy Hill tract last September. The Trend House is the first new model since that time.

The tract is in Our Mother of Sorrows Parish near the church and school. Father Daniel B. O'Rourke, active again after a period of illness, is pastor.

The "L-Shape" of the Trend House lends itself well to family living. The home includes much that a family looks for in a home — family room, front porch, tiled entrance hall, full bath plus dual entrance powder room, central access to the basement and easy access to outdoors on three sides of the house.

Magazine Publishes Nurse's Article

An article, entitled "Tetralogy of Fallot," by Carol Bieck, senior nurse at Nazareth College, appeared in the March 1959 issue of American Journal of Nursing.

THE ARTICLE was written while Miss Bieck was a junior, during her clinical experience in Pediatrics and is the story of a child about to undergo a heart operation, and the importance of proper family attitudes and preparation of children for surgical experiences.

What was undoubtedly a professional report developed into a warm, human interest story.
