

Patients See Hibernian Show

Auburn — The Ancient Order of Hibernians, Cayuga County Division No. 1, and Auxiliary entertained the patients of the Cayuga County Infirmary with an Irish Revue Sunday evening.

Soloists who presented Irish songs were Joseph Shaw, William Shaw, John Cunningham, Joseph McConnell, John Madigan.

Dances were given by the Misses Nora Brett and Ursula Brett, Mrs. Richard Brown and Mrs. Peter Ward.

Miss Loreta A. Donahue, president of the Auxiliary, did an Irish specialty number.

IN THE CHORUS were Alfred Connell, Francis Brennan, John Allen, Miss Cecilia Dolan, Miss Donahue, Miss Helen Walsh, the Misses Brett, Miss Elizabeth A. Russell, Mrs. Ward, Mrs. William Shaw, Mrs. Paul Kilborne, Mrs. John Griffin, Mrs. John Brennan, Mrs. John Gagin, Mrs. Marie Farrell, and Mr. McConnell.

Mrs. Clotilde Maywalt and James Brown were accompanists.

Rochester Women Make Dean's List

The two Rochester students attending Duquesne University in Pittsburgh were named to the Dean's list.

They are: Mary Kay Pringle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Pringle, 310 Tarrington Road and Phyllis Fustanio, daughter of Philip Fustanio, 37 Onondaga St. Both are graduates of Our Lady of Mercy High School, 1958 class.

Study Clubs Aid Laity Learn Faith

Pope Pius XII recommended as a valuable aid to pastors the formation of discussion clubs, where the laity may meet for religious discussion and friendly exchange of ideas.

"With all our heart we praise this apostolic labor of the laity and exhort you to regard it favorably, encourage it, and above all allow it to develop freely. — It is always the apostolate of the laity in its deepest and of the finest kind."

FUNCTIONING IN THE Assumption of Our Lady Parish, Fairport, under the direction of Rev. Leonard A. Kelly, pastor, are 25 of these Discussion Clubs, comprising 212 members.

"Love in Action" Part II by Rev. Leo J. Tress is the text being used.

LEADERS TOOK A Training Course in Discussion Techniques taught by Sisters, Mission Helpers of the Sacred Heart, who staff the Assumption School of Religion.

The twenty-five leaders are: Thomas Hahn, Alex D'Accurso, Arthur Firestone, Phillip Erb, Jean Flanagan, Victor Bartolotta, Colin Murray, Eugene Murphy, Walter Enbland, Tony LaPietra, Lewis Bartolotta, Paul Perdue, Albert Stolt, Ralph Webb and George Meyer.

Also Mesdames Elvira Holz, Dina Crane, Helen Cary, Jane Kohl, Jane Shea, Rita Henry and Frances Dwyer. Also Misses Josephine Bartolotta, Florence Stolt, Margaret Pace, and Jean Flanagan.

Spiritual 'Johnny Appleseed'
Cleveland — (RNS) — Each month during the sweet water shipping season, Mrs. Julia Shelley of Euclid, O., personally routes and mails 300 Catholic magazines to as many freighters. Her audience: some 7,200 lake seamen who often feel the pinch of boredom and lack of good literature. The 61-year-old housewife and businesswoman is considered by friends to be a spiritual "Johnny Appleseed," planting buoys of faith instead of apple cores.
