Sisters of St. Joseph Pontifical Mass, Sermon Mark Patronal Feast

Patronal feast of the Sisters of Saint Joseph was celebrated last Thursday at Nazareth Motherhouse, Pittsford, with more than 500 Sisters participating in Solemn Pontifical Mass offered by Auxiliary Bishop Lawrence B. Casey.

BISHOP JAMES E. KEARNEY presided at the throne and delivered the sermon in the presence of more than 500 Sisters. The annual celebration of the feast of Saint Joseph is an occasion for gratitude to this great saint, but this year there is a special motive to be thankful.

"I refer to this year's accomplishment which will make possible a project that has been hoped and planned for and looked forward to through the years.

That project, through the gracious assistance of Saint Joseph, will be brought to a very happy and consoling realization on behalf of two important elements in the community—those who have grown old in the service, and those who have come in the prime of their youth to offer to our Divine Lord, through the community, their lives, their talents, and the love of their hearts."

Bishop Kearney expressed his gratitude and that of the priests for the help the Sisters are giving in laying the foundation for the propagation of the faith in this Diocese.

"Your Bishop and your priests are deeply conscious of the fact that without the foundation work which is being done and has been done by the Sisters in our schools, through the years, the results of our work would be a far different thing.

"Today we express that gratitude to the individual Sisters because it is the work of the individual Sisters that builds up the Kingdom of Heaven," he said.

Business Bureau Issues Warning

Do not do business with a door-to-door salesman without checking him and his firm with the Better Business Bureau first, warns Harry C. Reynolds, manager of the Rochester Better Business Bureau.

"The door-to-door salesman may represent a company with either a good, bad or indifferent business record or, his office may be in his hat," Reynolds pointed out.

"It is difficult for the average home owner to determine which salesman is the honest one, without outside assistance. The Better Business Bureau attempts to provide this assistance," Reynolds said.
