Aquinas Mission Bouts Set At War Memorial

Carmen Basilio will again be guest of honor at the annual Aquinas Mission Bouts scheduled for the Community War Memorial tomorrow, April 4, at 8 p.m. Twelve three round bouts will be included in the card.

The annual event sponsored by Aquinas Institute has contributed thousands of dollars to the missions through the years.

Hundreds of boys participated in the preliminary and semi-final rounds of the bouts. The 24 finalists successfully defeated all previous opponents.

Tickets are available at the door.

Wisconsin Proposes End To Hasty Weddings

Madsen (D-C) — A bill which would revise Wisconsin's family code and discourage hasty marriages and divorces received strong backing at a legislative hearing.

Msgr. William Bronner, pastor of St. Anne's church in Milwaukee, told a committee the bill would eliminate "secrecy and haste" in marriages and make divorce "only a last resort." He was on the 18-member citizens committee which drafted the code after more than a year of study.

If the code is approved, all couples applying for a marriage license will be given a copy of its intent section, which says Wisconsin family law is aimed at promoting the stability and best interests of marriage and the family.

There was no objection to sections of the code which would abolish marriage mills by prohibiting marriages by justices of the peace, require parental consent for marriages of boys under 21 and girls under 18, and state recognition of "quickie" divorces obtained in other states, and provide a 60-day "cooling off" period before a divorce action could begin.

Films At Museum
Films to be shown in the Theatre of the Memorial Art Gallery on Sunday afternoon, April 5, at 4:15 will include "Austria" "Playtime in Bermuda" and "The Life of Thomas Edison." The public is invited.

'God We Trust' In N.Y. Courts

New York — (RNS) — "In God We Trust," official motto of the U.S. since 1954, will be displayed in every courtroom throughout this state according to a directive from the Judicial Conference here.

It has ordered the motto shown on a plaque "designed to harmonize with the architectural motif of each courthouse."

The phrase, which has appeared on coins since 1862 and on paper currency since 1957, was made this country's motto three years ago by Congress. Certain postage stamps of various denominations also carry the phrase.

Lucerne — (RNS) — Eight convents of cloistered nuns in Switzerland have formed a Federation of Saint Clare and held their first chapter.

Sets Goal
Johannesburg — (NO) — Development of a new attitude of friendship between racial groups in this segregationist nation emerged as one of the urgent goals at the first national clergy conference on Catholic Action.

The meeting here, which brought together a dozen bishops and priests from all over the country, brought out a consensus calling for a change of race relationships through a policy of identification.
