Why is it that the food we eat when we are children so quickly passes into growth, strength and physical power where as the spiritual food, the Eucharist Which we consume seems to produce no great strides toward dur union with God? A stone added to a stone would quickly make a building; why then does not Communion added to Communion make us "grow o our full stature in Christ"?

The reason is to be sought in our cooperation with the New York - (RNS) - Em be covered for at least a part 1 c. sugar Bread of Life, Just as some bodies lack the power to convert bezzled Heaven," the recently of the cooking time.
