Knights List Topic For State Contest

"Catholic Contribution to New York State" is the topic chosen for the annual Oratorical Contest sponsored by New York State Council, Knights of Columbus according to William C. Joslin, district deputy in the local area.

Any Catholic boy or girl who graduates from an accredited high school, public or private, in January or June of 1959, and who is a resident of New York State is eligible to participate.

PLACED IN CHARGE of the district contest is Conrad Scheg of 245 W. Spruce St., East Rochester who said that district finals will take place, April 30 in St. John Fisher College.

A total of $14,400 in awards will be given successful contestants in the state finals at Niagara Falls, N. Y. on Friday, May 22 at 7:30 p.m. during the state convention. Winners will receive $2,400; second, $2,000 and third $1,600.

Participating in the district finals here will be six contestants from Rochester council and two each from the following area councils: Our Lady of the Cenacle (Greene area); St. John Fisher Council; Webster, Palmyra and Pope Plus XII council in Irondequoit.

A COLUMBIAN Squire who is a high school senior and member of a state circle, residing in this state, may compete in the contests at the same time that other contestants compete.

Hibernians To Meet, Bowling Results Told

The Msgr. John J. Lee Division, Ancient Order of Hibernians, will hold its regular monthly meeting Friday night, April 10 at 8:30 in the Green Room of Columbus Center.

As usual, a highlight of the meeting will be the presentation of an Irish history topic by a member of the Irish History Committee.

Variety Show ticket and patron returns will also be made. The division-sponsored musical Variety Show, featuring the St. Bonaventure University Concert Band, will be held Saturday night, April 18 at 8:15 in the Notre Dame High School auditorium.

Stamps, to be sent to the missions, will be collected by Thomas R. Stowell, chairman of the Literary Committee.

FOLLOWING THE business meeting, there will be a resumption of the year-long A.O.H. Euchre Tournament. John R. Battersby is the current leader.

The Hibernian Bowling League completed its season Friday night, April 3, with Cork taking top honors. Regular bowlers who saw action with Cork during the 1958-59 campaign were Capt. Bart J. Maloney, Atty. William E. Burns, Atty. Thomas J. Sullivan, James M. Louden and Donald J. Seaman.

Clare was the second-place finisher, 15 points behind. Playing during the year with Clare were Capt. Vincent G. Trainor, Thomas F. Coggins, Timothy J. Connelly and Jerome F. Hogan.

Just one point back was Meath, with Capt. John J. Crowley, Bernard E. Tigau, Raymond B. Hourihan and Richard J. Reagan.

FINISHING FOURTH, one point to the rear of Meath was Faras (Captain William A. Crowley, Frank D. Maloney and Atty. William A. Danaher Jr.).

Fifth spot went to Down, which featured Capt. William J. O'Leary Jr., Dr. James R. Powell and Atty. M. Joseph Danaher.

In sixth was Mayo (Atty. Jerome H. Kane, captain Robert F. Sullivan and David F. O'Herron).
