Tri-County Lunch Draws 100 Women

Geneva — One hundred women from the tri-county area were present for the First Saturday luncheon of Ontario-Seneca-Yates Deanery Council of the Rochester Diocesan Council of Catholic Women held Saturday, April 4, in Town Pump, Orleans.

Guest speaker was the Rev. James O'Connell, pastor of St. Mary's Church, Waterloo.

MRS. MARY SCOTT, spiritual development director, Penn Yan, introduced the president, Mrs. Leo Genecco, of Canandaigua, who spoke briefly.

Clergy present included Rev. William Gaynor of Clifton Springs, Rev. Leo Hastings, Shortsville, Rev. Robert Smith, Geneva; and Rev. James O'Connell, Waterloo.

Rev. Robert Smith of Geneva, deanery moderator, spoke briefly, and introduced the guest speaker.

FATHER O'CONNELL spoke on the subject of The Eucharist. He emphasized also the importance of the role of the priest, and stressed the need for priests in the Diocese of Rochester.

"No parish has fully matured," he commented, "unless it has at least one vocation."

He said that a priest has two prayers, The Lord's Prayer, and a prayer that Our Lord will send more laborers into the vineyard.

A FEATURE OF the luncheon decorations was a beautiful shrine of Our Lady arranged by Mrs. Claude Curtis of Shortsville.

Announcement was made that the First Saturday luncheon in May will be held in Penn Yan.

A deanery meeting is scheduled for April 20 in Canandaigua. Election of officers will be held at this time.

Hostess group for the luncheon was the Rosary Society of St. Dominic's Church of Shortsville and Manchester.
