

Deanery Women Hear Reports

Rev. Leonard Kulawski, assistant pastor of St. Casimir's, Blinzie, spoke and showed color slides of his trip last summer to Puerto Rico at a recent meeting of the Diocesan Council of Catholic Women.

At the business meeting conducted by Mrs. F. P. Hommel of Watkins Glen, Deanery President, information was gathered from affiliate presidents relative to their organization's meeting date and election of officers.

Mrs. Hommel and Mrs. Raymond Granston, Deanery Family and Parent Education Chairman, represented the Deanery at the Mental Health Dinner in Watkins Glen, April 29. Members were asked to help the Cancer Society either individually or as groups.

NEW COMMITTEE chairmen were introduced. They are: Mrs. Lynn Propper, Library and Literature; Mrs. Clarence O'Brien, Organization and Development; and Mrs. Francis W. L. in cooperation with Catholic Charities; Miss Marion McInerney, Foreign Relief; Miss Florence Hughes, Spiritual Development.

Members have been invited to the annual Bishop's Tea Saturday, May 23 at Nazareth College, Rochester.

Next meeting will be held on May 25 in Watkins Glen at 8 p. m. to be preceded by a 6 p. m. Mass to be offered for the intentions of the Deanery. The Rosary Society of St. Mary's, Elmira and Horseheads, will have charge of the program and St. Mary's of the Lake, Watkins Glen, will serve refreshments.

Affiliate presidents gave a report of the ticket sale for the Winifred Peely lecture to be held May 13 at 8 p. m. in the Dunn Memorial.

Father Straub To Leave For Army Duty

Rev. Frederick W. Straub, assistant pastor of St. Boniface Church, Rochester, has been commissioned as a first lieutenant in the U.S. Army and will assume active duty on May 17.

FATHER STRAUB is assigned to Fort Riley, Kansas. His application for commission, with the permission of Bishop James E. Keane, was approved on April 15.

Ordained on June 5, 1954, Father Straub is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alphonse J. Straub, 17 Maryland St., Rochester. He attended Holy Rosary School, Our Lady of Perpetual Help School, St. Andrew's and St. Bernard's seminaries.

A NEPHEW of the late Rt. Rev. Frederick J. Straub, V.F.W. Dean of Cayuga Deanery, Father Straub celebrated his first Mass in Holy Rosary Church on June 6, 1954.

Father Straub's first and only assignment was to St. Boniface Church, where he directed the parish sodality.

AT THE SPEAKERS' TABLE at the annual banquet of Court St. Joseph, Catholic Daughters of America, in Corning on April 26 were (from left): Mrs. William Margraff, district deputy; the Rev. James Baker, moderator of Corning court; Mrs. Robert Keop, grand regent; the Rev. John Connelly, speaker; Mrs. Anna Sheehan, district deputy; and Mrs. Joseph Ruocco, co-chairman of the dinner.

Hornell Women Hear Fr. White

Hornell—The significance of the miraculous apparition at Our Lady of Knock Shrine in "Ireland" attended the annual banquet of Court St. Joseph, Catholic Daughters of America, Sunday evening, April 26, and heard an address by the chaplain of the Newark State School, the Rev. John Connelly.

Father White, assistant pastor of St. Mary's Church in Canandaigua, was guest speaker at the final luncheon of the court, sponsored by the Rev. John Connelly, district deputy from Waverly, Mrs. Anna Sheehan, district deputy from Elmira, Miss Margaret Graf, and chairman of the banquet, Mrs. Helen Gay and Mrs. Lillian Ruocco.

FRAGING THE economic and religious background of Knock in County Mayo, where the Blessed Virgin, St. Joseph and St. John miraculously appeared before a group of villagers in 1870, Father White stressed the adherence of the people to their faith despite heartbreaking obstacles.

Father White was introduced by the Rev. William Hickey, spiritual director of the Steuben Deanery. Miss Josephine Fitzgerald, Deanery president, expressed gratitude to the Misses Armella and Elizabeth Brill, decorations chairman; Mrs. Herman Hoffman and Mrs. Humbert Spito, reservations chairman and their committee for their assistance during the past year.

Corning — Miss Jean Ann Scanni and Louis J. Ferratella were united in marriage by the Rev. James Slaten, assistant pastor, at St. Vincent de Paul's Church on May 2.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Scanni of 128 Arthur Street, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Ferratella of 335 Sunset Drive.

Miss Lucille Barnato of Hazelton, Pa., was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Betty Ann Ferratella, Christine Asello and Annette Olmstead.

Rocco Ferratella attended the groom while Nicholas Ferratella, Phillip Cioppola and John Asello acted as the best men at the church.

Mary Ann Quattrini was flower girl and Joseph Ferratella was ring bearer.

Corning Area CDA Hears Newark Chaplain

Corning—More than 70 women, including guests from Waverly, Watkins Glen, Hornell, Elmira and Wells, attended the annual banquet of Court St. Joseph, Catholic Daughters of America, Sunday evening, April 26, and heard an address by the chaplain of the Newark State School, the Rev. John Connelly.

The Newark School is affiliated with the Department of Mental Hygiene of the State of New York.

At the speakers table was the grand regent of the Corning Court, Mrs. Valerie Keop; the moderator, the Rev. James Baker, guest speaker, the Rev. John Connelly, district deputy from Waverly, Mrs. Anna Sheehan, district deputy from Elmira, Miss Margaret Graf, and chairman of the banquet, Mrs. Helen Gay and Mrs. Lillian Ruocco.

FATHER CONNELLY'S topic was "Religious Education for the Exceptional Child." He has been chaplain of the Newark State School for the past nine years and is representative of all chaplains in this field for the Northeast Section of the United States.

Dinner music was provided, and two of the Court's members, Mrs. Kathleen Frier and Mrs. Helen Reilhan led the group singing.

64 Graduate From Kindergarten
Sixty-four children from St. Anthony's school Kindergarten in Elmira will participate in graduation exercises in a ceremony to be held on Sunday, May 17 at 3 p. m. in the church. Rev. William A. Burns, pastor, will present diplomas and Mrs. William Nelson and their committee.
