Watching The Screen

'The Winner's'

By RAY SMITH
We are very happy to announce the winners of the twenty-five dollar defense bonds...
"WARLOCK" at the Palace Theater is studded with big stars in another western for ADULTS and ADOLESCENTS.

And here they are, Joan Hughes of Mercy High School and Beverly Baker of St. Boniface School. Congratulations on winning first prize in our contest and sincere thanks to the many others who sent us their letters.

May we inject here a sincere word of appreciation to Mr. Joseph Seel, manager of the Regent Theater, and the staff of the Paramount Pictures Corporation for bringing this wonderful movie to Rochester.

ACADEMY AWARD winner Susan Hayward visits Rochester this week on the Paramount Screen in the covered wagon western "THUNDER IN THE SKY".

Jeff Chandler will be the attraction for the women patrons as the fearless Missouri cowboy who guides a wagon train over rough country and, in his spare time, tries to win Miss Hayward's love.

The suspense for the final part of this 31-minute film is torn as the Indians stand (or sit) on their horses, if you must be technical, between the
