GOD LOVE YOU!

By MOST REV. FULTON J. SHEEN

Our Lord once said to His Followers: "Blessed are the eves that see what you see." Vision to Him was of two kinds: one, physical, by which we see butchers and bakers and Cadillac makers; the other spiritual, by which, thanks to faith, we see Divinly through His Humanily, the blessings of heaven through the crosses of life, and His Body and Blood through the appearances of bread and wine.

at Caphariaum He looked at a man whose right hand was paralyzed. That withered member was the symbol of those who have lost the capacity to work for the symbol of God because bicycle owners in public and private schools receiving to longer avenue followship and granually to other and private schools receiving to longer avenue followship and granually to other and private schools receiving to longer avenue followship and granually to other and private schools receiving to longer avenue followship and granually to other and private schools receiving the longer avenue for the symbol of they no longer extend-fellowship and generosity to others. The missionaries who follow the Father's Will to bring Him to the pagan world are His "Fathers", His "Brothers" and His "Sisters".

My beloved readers. Christ Looked with love upon those in need and those who serve the needs of others; on the helpless in the missions and on the missionaries who bring them the Gospel. Would to God that our looks were as compassionate and Wifen you look at a picture of Pope John XXIII do you see in him the Vicar of Christ? Do you see in him the "lather" of all missionary societies, not just one which has ils roots in America or France, but all of them? If your vision is spiritual them serve the spiritually famished of foreign missions through him. Everyone else who begs in Christ's name has only a secondary consideration. As the Holy Father put its "The Vicar of Christ must be first and principally aided".
