

New Tower Chimes Gift Of Waverly Parishioner

Waverly — Miss Anna Frances Payne donated the tower chimes recently installed in St. James Church on approval. Yet to be donated are the inside chimes at a cost of $375, which may be paid over a period of two years.

Father Hogan has received many enthusiastic comments on the beauty of these chimes. They may be played so as to be heard either within the church or outdoors from the towers, and it is also possible to have the tower chimes played automatically from records.

ANOTHER DONATION recently received by St. James Church is the handsome lace on the Italian walnut cabinet and on the little table in the baptistry. These were made and donated by Mrs. Arthur Crowley, who also donated the cover for the credence table in the sanctuary.

An altar screen, used for the first time in the liturgy in the Mass of the Resurrection on Easter morning, was donated by Mr. and Mrs. H. Murray Sawyer and Harold Sawyer in memory of Mrs. Harold Sawyer.

Waverly — Miss Sara O'Farrell was buried from St. James Church Thursday morning. The Rev. G. Stuart Hogan, pastor, celebrated the Requiem High Mass.

Miss O'Farrell, formerly of 633 Fulton Street, died April 6, 1959, in the Diaga General Hospital after a short illness. She was born in Waverly, before retiring in 1956, she had been employed for several years by the Mark Twain Hotel in Elmira.

MISS O'FARRELL is survived by one sister, Miss Mary O'Farrell, a sister-in-law, Mrs. Thomas O'Farrell of Sayre, Pa., several pieces and nephews.

Funeral services were held at 10:30 a. m. at St. James Church, officiating was Edward McCabe, Anthony Jordan, James Kinney and Kenneth Fravel.

Burial was in St. James cemetery.

Painted Post Women Attend Birthday Fete

Painted Post — The 12th annual birthday dinner of the Catholic Women's Club of Immaculate Heart of Mary Church attracted about 70 members at the Baron Stouben Hotel in Corning Monday evening, April 6, to hear a talk by the Rev. Benedict Ehmman.

Tables for the scrumptious-type dinner were attractively decorated with spring bouquets and small birthday cakes in keeping with the party theme.

MRS. ROBERT MAURER, president, welcomed those attending, following which the Rev. Harold Rogers, pastor, gave the invocation.

Father Rogers introduced the speaker, the Rev. Benedict Ehmman of Watkins Glen, who gave an interesting and informative talk on "The People's Participation in the Mass."

The entertainment consisted of a program entitled "Women's Club Headlines," a fashion show of hats, with Mrs. Robert Shopoff as commentator. The hats were given to different members following the program.

MRS. THOMAS ELMER was general chairman of arrangements for the dinner. She was assisted by Mrs. Harry Teter, decorations; Mrs. Willy Fricke, program; Mrs. Thomas Kelley and Mrs. Shopoff, entertainment; Mrs. Robert Melke, tickets.

St. Bona Concert Set At Notre Dame High

The curtain goes up on the St. Bonaventure University Concert Band this Saturday night, April 18, at 8:15 in the Notre Dame High School auditorium.

The fourth annual musical variety show is sponsored by the Msgr. John J. Lee Division, Ancient Order of Hibernians.

Bernard E. Tighe and John R. Balforsby are general chairman of the event.

A PROGRAM OF 20 selections will be heard as part of the varied program, which includes religious music, serious classics, Broadway musical hits and Irish favorites.

In addition to regular band numbers, there will be special production numbers, violin solos, piano solos, a trumpet trio and vocal selections.

The Rev. Paul J. Oligny, O.F.M., head of the St. Bonaventure University, Department of music, is the director of the band.

Tickets may be obtained from any Hibernian member or at the door of the auditorium Saturday night.

The donation is $1 for adults and 50 cents for students.

PROCEEDS ARE used to finance Hibernian youth projects, which include the Msgr. John J. Lee Award, given to an outstanding graduate in the senior at Notre Dame High School, and six awards in the division's annual essay contest, which is open to any grammar and high school in Chemung County.

The concert band will arrive in Elmira Saturday afternoon and spend the night at the Hotel Langwell. The Elmira visit is one of three by the troupe this weekend. The band is also playing at the Veterans Administration Center, Bath, and at Calicoon, N.Y.

There will be a reception and dance following the local performance, at Columbus Center, The Mark IV will play for dancing.

With regional and national accreditation, it has a four year liberal arts course for women a n d offers pre-professional training for medicine, law, social service, art, music, elementary and secondary teacher education and home economics.

MEMBERS in the area Clubs are from Susquehanna, Athens, Sayre, all in Pennsylvania and Binghamton, Elmira, Johnson City, Trumansburg and Auburn in New York State.

Miss Mary C. McGinty, 653 Davis Street, Elmira is Secretary of the Club and will be pleased to give further information about the College.
