Holy Name Breakfast Draws 125 in Owego

Owego — One hundred twenty-five members and guests of the Holy Name Society of St. Patrick's Parish attended the annual Communion and breakfast of the Society, Sunday morning in the parish hall.

J. Erwin Baier, a past-president, acted as toastmaster at the breakfast, which was served following the 8:30 Mass by members of the Rosary and Altar Society and Catholic Daughters of America.

ASIDE FROM the officers of the group, those introduced were the Rev. William J. O'Brien, pastor, Sheldon A. Gullies, superintendent of the Owego Academy, Centralized Schools; Atty. Richard C. Lounsberry, member of the State Assembly from Tioga County.

Past Presidents, including

Emery Mullen, Frank McGovern, John McInammy, Walter O'Connell and Walter T. Shelton were also introduced.

Joseph Fernback, director of the Quality Control of the Owego plant of International Business Machines Corp., spoke on "Is It Enough to Do a Good Job?"

FERNBACK TOLD his listeners that it was not enough to complete the task of his particular line of work in a commendable manner, but one must also extend his efforts and abilities to other activities around him, especially in a civic nature.

His good influence, then, would not be felt just among his close associates, but around residents of his locality.

He urged his listeners to, especially, participate in programs that were for the improvement of their communities.

Owego — Rev. Benedict A. Ehmant, of Watkins Glen, will preach the sermon at the afternoon Vespers to be sung, under the auspices of the Binghamton Chapter of the American Guild of Organists in St. Patrick's Church, Sunday, April 28.

They will be assisted by the recently formed St. Patrick's Glee Club of about 40 voices. The Glee Club was formed and is being directed by the Rev. Michael L. Reagan, assistant pastor of St. Patrick's.

MRS. ANNA MEADE, organist of St. Patrick's is president of the Chapter. The mixed adult choir, of 40 voices and a children's choir of 30, of St. Cyril's Methodist Church, Binghamton, will sing the vespers.

Helen Friedrich, Requiem Held

Bath — Mrs. Helen Friedrich, 76, of Campbell R.D. 1, died Sunday, April 5, 1959, at the Davenport Memorial Hospital following a short illness. She was the wife of John J. Friedrich.
