The Merry Month
Of May

In the merry month of May, America found strawberries it seems to me that there is a growing wild in what is now sort of magic in the air, that Chill, Peru. We don't know just makes it a joyous great to be in the month of May. The name of the game to be called "Strawberry month" was probably borrowed from the name of a Roman-Greek goddess of Jupiter's day Maia (or Maya), daughter of Atlas and mother of Mercury. May has become a part of our language in many ways than one. For instance, there's MAY-DAY, not only Mayday, but also the famous Air Corps distress signal in World War II. And the MAYPOLE... the MAY APPLE, a North American herb which bears a single white flower. MAYFAIR, a fashionable season of London in which an annual May fair was once held. The MAY FLOWER, which using those luscious ripe, red berries for a dessert treat for shores. MAYFIELD, known to your family. A Strawberry may a fisherman. MAY CREAM PIE with Cereal Crumb CRUST will make a hit.

Admission of Hawaii into the United States has sparked interest in the foods and customs of the Hawaiians. Sweet - Sour Shrimp - Atop - Chinese Noodles would make a good treat for a Hawaiian Buffet. DO YOU KNOW the origin of the word "pickle"?

It goes back to prehistoric times with one of the first savages, Nick Neanderthal, who took his family for an outdoor grill of barbecued mastodon. As they sat down, Mrs. N. asked: "Did you bring the pickles, Nick?" Ever since then, open-air eating has become known as a "pickles, Nick." The modern tongue for shorter names made it "pickle."

GOD LOVE YOU!

By MOST REV. FULTON J. SHEEN

Worries and burdens never scatter; they always come to a head in some one person. Children in a family do not worry about where their food or clothes come from, but the father does. In a diocese, the burden of building schools and the spiritual condition of the clergy and the faithful fall on the shoulders of the Bishop. And in an even greater measure does the weight of the world's moral and spiritual condition fall on the Holy Father as the Vicar of Christ. If there be a harassment of missionaries as there is in India; if there be anti-religious political forces throttling religious education in Africa; if there be a persecution of the faithful in Vietnam or missionaries tormented by the reds in China—all these are concentrated in the person who personalizes the Church, namely the Holy Father.

His burden is like that of Our Lord in Gethsemane. It was not keys alone that Our Lord gave Peter and his successors; Our Lord also promised the Cross. To be Vicar of Christ is not just an honor. It is a sentence to suffer in every fiber of being the tears, the wounds, the imprisonments, the fallings, the worries of the Church everywhere in the world.

Why do the Communists in China promise immunity from persecution if our missionaries and faithful deny the Holy Father? Why do they who deny the existence of God ask a denial of the Papacy? Because they instinctively know that once a head is captured the body may live for a while, but eventually it will die.

- What can we do?
- 1) We can pray for the Holy Father as the Church made intercession for Peter when he was in prison.
 - 2) We can make sacrifices for him. Cut into your capital and deny you a luxury and send it to him for the needs of the Church in Asia, Africa, Oceania and elsewhere.
 - 3) We can send our sacrifices to him through his own Pontifical Society for the Propagation of the Faith. Pontifical means belonging to the Pontiff.
 - 4) We can tell others that the Holy Father must have a society of this kind to assure the equal distribution throughout the world of our charity and sacrifices. While each religious group provides only for its members, he must provide for all societies in all places.
 - 5) Finally, we can rejoice to know that by making a sacrifice to the Holy Father we make a) an act of Faith in him as Vicar of Christ; b) an act of Hope for the spread of the reign of Christ throughout the world; c) an act of Charity to him who above all else in this world is for us the one through whom Christ speaks.

GOD LOVE YOU to M. T. for $2.50 "Please accept this money from a teenager, grateful for being born into a Catholic family." ... to J. E. B. for $25 "This is part of my re-employment bonus." ... to A. M. D. for $1.50 "I earned the enclosed doing typing on my lunch hour. I hope it helps the Holy Father's Missions."
