The Weekly Note From Mr. Pepsi

Every year the volunteer workers on the Community Chest-Red Cross campaign together a sigh of relief when the work is done. It's a tough job and a time-consuming one. But the load is made lighter by the fine people they meet as they solicit contributions.

And there are the heart warming stories of the humble as well as the mighty who give more than their share out of gratitude for the things their community means to them.

Thanks to all of you, the drive was a complete success with a 22% higher contribution than ever before.
