Li. Skerrett
Receives Degree

Lieutenant Robert J. Skerrett, U.S.N., son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter E. Skerrett, 234 Hurstbourne Rd., Irondequoit, was graduated from the United States Navy Post Graduate School at Monterey, Calif., on May 28. He will receive a master's degree in electrical engineering.

LIEUTENANT SKERRETT joined the Army after graduating from Aquinas Institute in 1947. He served in the Philippines, and earned an appointment to Stewart Field, the Prep School for West Point.

After qualifying for West Point, he decided he would prefer a Navy career. He secured an appointment from the U.S. Congressman Kenneth Keating, and entered the United States Naval Academy at Annapolis. Lieut. Skerrett graduated in the class of 1953, and saw destroyer service aboard the Newman K. Perry as Engineering Officer.

Honored By Hospital

FIFTY-EIGHT YEARS of service to Park Avenue Hospital were recognized this week when Rt. Rev. Mgr. Thomas F. Connors, pastor of Blessed Sacrament Church, was honored by a plaque, testifying to the priest's selfless interest in the hospital. The plaque is affixed to the wall in the hospital's main corridor.
