Charity Ladies Install Honor Guests At Tea

The Rev. Hubert A. Bisky, Spiritual Moderator of the Elmira Ladies of Charity welcomed about 200 members, affiliates and prospective members assembled at Dunn Memorial last Sunday afternoon for a Silver Tea honoring the affiliates and guests.

Father Bisky, speaking in the Little Flower Chapel, preceding Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament, urged the new members to live up to the duties and privileges of a true Lady of Charity.

The new officers, all approved by the Bishop, were introduced by Miss Mary E. Fitzgerald, executive director of the Ladies of Charity. At an informal tea following the ceremony in the chapel, Miss Frances M. Battersby, retiring president and Mrs. Walsh posed.

IN THE LOUNGE room, members and guests inspected posters depicting the projects of the ten acting committees. The arrangements under the direction of the membership committee were in charge of the active committee members. Membership aides included Mrs. John T. Dowdle, chairman; Mrs. Thomas J. McCarthy, chairman; also Mrs. Francis J. Casvey and Mrs. Mary McDonald.

Miss Theresa Hughes led congregational singing, and Miss Florence Hughes was organist.

The membership committee presented Miss Battersby with a statue of St. Vincent de Paul.

Bath — The Rosary and Altar Society of St. Mary's parish, Bath, held its first annual breakfast at the Moonlit Restaurant Sunday, June 7.

Guest speaker, Rev. William P. Nolan, Y. Center, Bath, was introduced by Rev. John P. O'Malley, pastor. Approximately 81 members attended the breakfast. Miss Marion Dillon was chairman, Mrs. John Gallagher served as pianist.

THE SOCIETY also held its last meeting for the season at the Moonlit on Wednesday, June 3.

New officers, president Rachel Hoplak, vice-president Lucille Fannley, recording secretary, Marion Dillon, corresponding secretary, Annanette Steyer, treasurer, Margaret Hand, were installed.

Outgoing officers were: President, Elida Mowchan, vice-president, Mary Giavonni, Recording secretary, Frieda Fiorio, corresponding secretary, Alfred Miller, treasurer, Barbara Berry.

Father O'Malley is spiritual moderator.

Sodality Rite Held In Corning

Corning — Twenty-three members of the eighth grade were received as probationers in the Sodality of Our Lady during simple but impressive ceremonies at St. Patrick's Church a week ago.

In addition eight members of the high school group were received as permanent members.

THE PERMANENT members were awarded certificates for faithful attendance at meetings and participation in Sodality activities.

The Act of Consecration was made before a shrine of Our Lady, Duncce Killgrew, accompanied by Sr. Ann and Betty Bierwiler, crowned Our Blessed Lady.

The Rev. Thomas Watts of St. Mary's Parish congratulated the Sodality, explained to them their duties and interpreted the significance of their being received into the Sodality on the feast of the Queenship of Mary.

The ceremony closed with Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament.

Mothers, Daughters Event

MEMBERS OF THE Immaculate Heart Society of St. Peter and Paul's parish held a Mothers and Daughters Communion and breakfast last Sunday morning.

Summer Courses Set At College

The summer session at Nazareth College will open on Monday, June 29 and close on Friday, August 7. Registration for day students is scheduled for June 29 and for residents, June 30.

Feature of the Summer Program this year is an Advanced Program in English for high school juniors and seniors, an intensive program for college-bound students.

Classes in this course will begin on Wednesday morning, July 1 and will continue Monday through Friday until August. The class is scheduled from 9:15 to 10:30. Tuition for this course is $25.00.

Courses will be offered in the Elementary Teacher Education Division in the Library program for teachers, and in the Liberal Arts program both on the Undergraduate and Graduate level. Some courses will be available in the Business and Music departments.

In the Graduate Division, Sister Margaret Teresa will offer Seventeenth Century Poets; Sister Thomas Marion, Principles of Literary Criticism; Dr. William R. Gwinn, Nineteenth Century Europe; Dr. Robert Weigler, Psychology of School Music Teaching; and Dr. David Fetter, Analytical Technique. Private instruction will be available to students in the Music Department.
