

Hornell Women Hear Seminary Professor

Hornell — St. Ann's Mothers Club held its annual banquet and installation of officers at the New Sherwood Hotel, Hornell, on June 3.

Highlight of the evening was a talk by the Rev. E. Leo Mammus of St. Bernard's Seminary in Rochester.

In his talk Father emphasized that the great enemy of religion is the spirit of indifference. In Poland, he said, "the Communists have realized that the greatest force for their success is not an energetic group of militant atheists but the indifference of the Christians that has been the story elsewhere and must not be ours."

OFFICERS INSTALLED were: President, Mrs. Howard Sikso; vice president, Mrs. Joseph Polych; second vice president and publicity chairman, Mrs. M. W. Cimino; secretary, Mrs. Dominic Mardo; and treasurer, Mrs. Joseph Daniels.

Mrs. Harry Sherman, retiring president, conducted the installation ceremonies. Mrs. Peter Arcangeli was toastmistress.

Entertainment was furnished by the Pops and Pans Kitchen Band, who played several selections; Miss Evelyn McLean gave a monologue; Molly Wallin, two piano selections; Lucy Orihue, two vocal solos, accompanied by Margaret Deegan, who also played a piano selection.

THE GRACE before dinner was given by Rev. Joseph Haffey, pastor of St. Ignatius Loyola Church.

Cochairmen for the dinner were Mrs. Mardo and Mrs. Daniels.

Guests were Miss Josephine Fitzgerald, the Rev. Robert Meng and the Rev. Vincent Collins, club moderator, both assistant pastors at St. Ann's Church, and the Rev. Norbert Nolan, assistant pastor of St. Ignatius Loyola Church.

Background music was played throughout the dinner by Mrs. Bud Judy.
