Charity Ladies Install Honor Guests At Tea

The Rev. Hubert A. Bisky, Spiritual Moderator of the Elmira Ladies of Charity welcomed about 200 members, affiliates and prospective members assembled at the Dunn Memorial last Sunday afternoon for a Silver Tea honoring the affiliates and guests.

Father Bisky, speaking in the Little Flower Chapel, preceding Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament, urged the new members to live up to the duties and privileges of a true Lady of Charity.

"BE MARY-LIKE" said Father Bisky, "and you will be humble, simple and charitable. Let your motto be, 'Thy Will be done.'"

New officers were installed in an informal ceremony. Mrs. James B. Walsh, who was appointed by Bishop Kearney as president of the group; vice president, Mrs. Geraldine Moran; secretary, Miss Elenore Collins; assistant secretary, Mrs. Thomas Sullivan; executive treasurer, Mrs. Francis D. Preston; assistant treasurer, Miss Lauretta Bixby.

The new officers, all approved by the Bishop, were introduced by Miss Mary E. Fitzgerald, executive director of the Ladies of Charity. An informal tea following the ceremony in the chapel, Miss Francis M. Battersby, retiring president and Mrs. Walsh poured.

IN THE LOUNGE room, members and guests inspected posters depicting the projects of the tea-aiding committee. Tea arrangements, under the direction of the membership committee were in charge of the active committee members. Membership aides included Mrs. John T. Dowdle, chairman; Mrs. Thomas J. McCarthy, co-chairman; also Mrs. Francis T. Garvey and Mrs. Mary McDonald.

Miss Theresa Hughes led congregational singing and Miss Florence Hughes was organist. The membership committee presented Miss Battersby with a statue of St. Vincent de Paul.

Columbian Squires Plan Diocesan Meet

The various Circles of the Columbian Squires in the Diocese of Rochester will hold their first meeting at Camp Columbus on Owasco Lake on the 13th of June.

The Auburn Circle of Columbian Squires will be the host circle. Girls from East Rochester, Elmira, Shortsville and Mt. Morris have been invited to attend. These Circles comprise 115 young boys between the ages of 13 and 18.

The Squires are young boys that are selected to be trained today to be the leaders of the Catholic Church of tomorrow by participating in a special program. This includes a four-point program namely spiritual, civic, cultural, social and physical. Each program is supervised by an adult counselor. The Squires are sponsored by the Knights of Columbus from a national level down through the local level.

THE PURPOSE of the Squires on a diocesan basis is to unite the circles as a medium of exchange of ideas.

Priests Study Liturgy Decree

Charleston — (NC) — Bishop Paul J. Hallinan of Charleston sponsored two conferences of priests to discuss implementation of the Holy See's decree on sacred music and the liturgy, especially lay participation in Mass.

Father Frederick R. Molignux of the School of Canon Law, Catholic University of America, Washington, D.C., an authority on liturgy, participated in the discussions.
