

At Home With Trudy McNeil

Favorite Oatmeal
Cookie Recipe

From time to time I want to give you a favorite cookie recipe. Some of the sweetest memories of my childhood are soundings with Mother's Cookies. Long after the spicy fragrance of her ginger snaps faded into the years, I thought of that full-cookie jar... bringing back peace of mind bygone days... and the security of a good home... as Edgar Guest put it so well: "I'm sorry for people wherever they are, who live in a house where there's no cookie jar."

GOD LOVE YOU!

BY MOST REV. FULTON J. SHEEN

Each year the Catholics of the United States send to the Holy Father their alms and sacrifices to help him send missionaries to Asia, Africa, Oceania and other parts of the world. There are 135,000 missionaries in the field right now. Such generosity enables the Vicar of Christ to help the 6000 hospitals and dispensaries, the 60,000 schools, the 1300 orphanages and the 300-leper colonies and other social and religious works among the pagans.

Last year the Catholics of the United States gave to the Holy Father a per capita average of twenty six cents.

The average income of every person in the United States is $2040. Out of this amount the per capita expenditure on alcohol is $36 and the per capita expenditure on cigarettes is $36.

This happens not because we are selfish; the American people are the most generous in the world. It happens because we are thoughtless! The more grateful we are for the gift of faith, the more we seek to extend that gift of faith to others. The more we are conscious of our sins, the more sacrifices we make to convert souls that will love God more than we do, and thus make up for our shortcomings. The more we are conscious that the Holy Father is under attack in all Communist countries, the more we will direct our aims to him to make amends for that loss of love.

Here is a practical solution: Why not send to the Holy Father the equivalent of what you spend on cigarettes each month; and if you do not smoke send in something to make up for those who never make a sacrifice for the good of the soul. All sacrifices sent to the Society for the Propagation of the Faith are given to the Holy Father.

GOD LOVE YOU TO M.S. & B.N. for $20. "My fiancée and I wish to send this small sum to the Society for the Propagation of the Faith as wedding gifts to one another for our wedding next Saturday" . . . to S.S. for $20 "This was being saved to buy sterling silverware and china, but I promised if my father's operation was a success and his life spared I would send it to you" . . . to M.L. for $60. "I promised to send 1 per cent of whatever I received from the sale of my house—the check is enclosed."

We want not only your sacrifices but your prayers too. Send us a $2 sacrifice offering for the WORLD MISSION ROSARY and at your request we will send one off to you right away. In this way you will sacrifice a little for the Missions and each time you say the rosary you will remember to put aside a daily sacrifice for the Holy Father's work among the pagans of the world.

Cut out this column, pin your sacrifice to it and mail it to the Most Rev. Fulton J. Sheen, National Director of the Society for the Propagation of the Faith, 368 Fifth Avenue, New York 17, N.Y., or your Diocesan Director, Rev. George S. Wood, 59 Chestnut Street, Rochester 4, N.Y.

For Better Outdoor Picnics And Parties
Zweigle's
TASTY HOTS
AT YOUR NEIGHBORHOOD FOOD STORE
OR 214 JOSEPH AVENUE HA 6-4640

The Weekly Note From Mr. Pepsi
One park attendant said to another, "Why is there so much litter around here today?"
"Oh, those are the leaflets the boss passed around asking people to use the trash baskets," the other replied!
You'll enjoy your picnics more when you find the parks clean. On your outing this weekend, take along a big empty sack. It will help you clear away your own trash, and the people who use the area after you will be grateful for your courtesy. It's just another way to be sociable with your neighbors.
Don't forget extra Pepsi when you pack the basket! You'll find joy Pepsi-Cola always adds to the fun of eating out of doors.
Frank G. Staropoli, Pres.
Pepsi-Cola Rochester Bottlers, Inc.

SIMPLE TO MAKE, DELICIOUS OATMEAL COOKIES

CHOCOLATE CHIP OATMEAL COOKIES
1 c. shortening
1 c. white sugar
1 c. brown sugar
2 eggs
1 c. milk
2 t. baking soda
1 t. salt
2 c. rolled oats
1 c. chopped nuts
1 c. chocolate or lemon bits
1 t. vanilla
Cream shortening and sugars, beat in eggs, milk and vanilla. Sift flour, soda and salt and stir into first mixture. Blend in oats, nuts and bits. Drop by spoonfuls onto lightly greased cookie sheet. Bake at 375 degrees about 10 to 12 minutes. Yield: 4 dozen.

COOKIE TIPS: Nice to know that there's 1 cup of chips in each 6 ounce package so it isn't necessary to use a measuring cup. Grease cookie sheet with oil or shortening. Always use straight, even cookie sheet that is not too large to prevent the circulation of air within the oven. Store cookies in a tightly covered container. Most cookies will freeze well in freezer bag, seal, freeze. Allow about 15 minutes for thawing.

Incidentally, the handles of the knives are black Shur Wood with contoured grip, impervious to heat and acid. These knives, made by the Robinson Company of Perry, New York, are unconditionally guaranteed. A set of these fine knives would make a wonderful gift for a bride.

Here's a new product you should know about. New Hobson Knives, the first and only knives will fantastically sharp "FLAME EDGE" of Tungsten Carbide. One side of the cutting edge is tungsten carbide, the hardest metal known. The knife sharpens itself with use for as the softer steel wears away, more supershard tungsten carbide is exposed, ensuring a fine cutting edge.

THIS IS THE first knife in 2000 years with a cutting edge that, not steel! You'll find carving knives, utility knives, paring knives, steak knives and others. They are available in Rochester at McGardys, and soon other stores will be carrying them. Set dad would love one of the carving knives for Father's Day.

MRS. MARY DURKIN, Grand Regent of the Ovid Chapter of the Catholic Daughters of America met Monday evening, June 8 in St. Patrick's School auditorium. There were 45 members present. Rev. John B. Kienleys was guest.

Mrs. Mary Durkin, district deputy, Waterloo installed the officers. The court voted contributions to Girl Scouts and Little League baseball teams of the vicinity and the CDA History Award at graduation exercises at Ovid Central School.

A past grand regent pin was presented to Miss Elizabeth Quinn and an appreciation gift to Mrs. Mary Durkin. A mystery ride was planned for July. Mrs. Mildred Vincent was luncheon chairman.

ROCHESTER
Newly elected officers of Court Rochester, Catholic Daughters of America, members and friends will attend a banquet at the Spring House, Tuesday, June 30 at 6:30 p.m.

Reservations are being made with Mrs. James Liponi, Butler 87839 or Mrs. Charles Guzzetta Hubbard 2-1038.

Mrs. Mary Schrandt was installed as grand regent, June 9 at Columbus Civic Center with these other officers: Mrs. Caroline Politz, vice grand regent; Rev. John W. Daney, chaplain; Miss Dorothy Wallers, prophetess; Mrs. Martha Sharpley, lecturer; Mrs. Frances Schary, historian; Mrs. Edwina Crosby, financial secretary; Mrs. Frances Polina, treasurer; Miss Margaret Sirami, monitor; Mrs. Louis Chingone, sentinel; Mrs. Marion Quinn, organist; Mrs. Mesdames James Anthony, Montemaro, Sam Comarato and the Misses Irene Martin, Elizabeth Roby and Ann Cayli, trustees.

Mrs. James DePalma and Mrs. Edward Dawejko, past grand chairmen, Mrs. Andrew Calcege, publicity; Mrs. Peggy Keefe, sunshine; Mesdames James Ciappone, Mrs. Ernest Green, Mrs. John Shapley, Sewing, Medical Missions, Foreign Relief.

SENECA FALLS
Seneca Falls - Catholic

HAPPY FOLKS
Enjoy A Meal Away From Home
Occasionally And Like To Choose
Friday And Saturday Night At The
CRESCENT BEACH HOTEL
Where They Dance To The Music Of
Sam Stiles' Fine Dance Band
And Sip Refreshing COCKTAILS In
Our Romantic Stepdown Lounge.
Your Hosts - LORRAINE AND RAY GEIS

Looking Back

Early Newsmen Recalled
By Courier's 'Grandpa'

By THOMAS H. O'CONNOR

When Vince Hannon, newly elected grand knight, was congratulated by this department on his election, he was reminded of his activities as a carrier boy for Bruce Superintendent of this newspaper. Vince was active in St. Mary's and in Brighton and also in the school caudates.

This reminiscence set old "grandpa" here on another attempt to resurrect events of early days on this newspaper and on the Rochester Echo.

Handling the Catholic news in this city back in the 20s and 30s was done through the Echo. No definite pattern was available. Hustling for the old Echo, this writer naturally called on parishes where the paper had greater circulation and in St. Michael's parish a young fellow was noted taking care of bowling scores and showing promises in sports writing.

AN AQUINAS STUDENT was provided upon to put together a sports column, each week. This was later also furnished to the Courier Journal when the young sports writer joined the old Journal-American and advanced to night city editor on the American and assistant city editor on the Journal.

He came with the Courier Journal after the Hearst paper closed and was with us twice. He is William A. Lang, now president of Rochester Transit Corporation.

When helping the Echo, Bill was active in promoting sports. Edward L. Hannon, Chief of Police, was a former "11-a-year staff man" on the Echo and a short time ago in a letter to the "Data we go back as far as the days when you were in the Central Building with the antique desk and the old typewriter."

"Also, probably you and Bill Lang could tell the folks how you organized the Catholic Baseball League during the 'Crash days'—to prove you were ahead of the times in preventing what is now known as 'Olympic Incompetence!' On what a social worker might call 'group work'."

SPORTS WRITING was only the beginning for Bill Lang. He handled all kinds of stories and was sent to Florida once on an important assignment by the Hearst paper. Bylines were frequent on that story.

He has a penchant for puns. One of his headlines which he wrote when Communism began to threaten the church in Europe was: "This Bishop, Sees Red, Feels Blue." Of course, it wasn't printed.

Another young man who helped us out in the early Echo days was Emmett N. O'Brien, now head of Gannett's news bureau in Albany. As a student at Aquinas, Emmett covered local amateur play.

As long as newspapermen are being mentioned, Paul W. Finney was our Auburn correspondent for a time before coming to Rochester and now heading the sports department of the Democrat and Chronicle.

A note was received by this writer after a recent column from Harold A. Nichols, radio and television writer for the D. and C. Harold was our Clyde correspondent in other years and has consistently lent interest and support to the diocesan newspaper.

Also recalled is the active cooperation with the Catholic press given down through the years by Arthur P. Farren, Art as a student at Aquinas Institute wrote stories for the old Rochester Echo, later did the same for the Courier Journal. Now he handles public relations for Foley Associates and is a welcome visitor to this editorial office.

Art Contest
Announced

Romeo (INC) - The International Institute of Liturgical Art has announced a competition for the design of stained glass windows for the new Sacrament of the Sacred Heart of Jesus in Florence, Italy.

The Institute, a private organization which seeks to encourage contemporary religious art, announced the competition will award a $1,000 first prize and $380 and $340 as second and third prizes. Another $800 will be awarded for honorable mention winners.

This was the CDA's last meeting until September. There will be a picnic in July and a Mystery Ride in August. Mrs. Frances Burdick will be chairman of the picnic in July at a date and place to be announced later.

AUBURN
Mrs. Lawrence C. Salzer, grand regent, Mrs. John C. O'Toole, vice grand regent; Mrs. William J. Byrne, treasurer; Mrs. John Foster, financial secretary; Mrs. James T. Kennedy, historian; Miss Bernice A. Hickey, monitor; Mrs. Peter V. Cool, sentinel; Miss Marie Toney, lecturer; Mrs. Bernadine C. Cox, prophetess; Mrs. Floyd B. Abrams, Miss Evelyn F. Murray and Mrs. William H. Hickey, trustees.

The Rev. John V. Loughlin, assistant pastor of St. Aloysius Church, is court chaplain.

Miss Gertrude M. Kennedy, retiring grand regent, presented awards to the following poetry contest winners: Division 1, John Gleason, Lorraine Wildner, Barbara Conroy; Division 2, Juanita Hoadley, Cheryl Symula, Mary deMonte; Division 3, Ada Marie Spinelli, Judy Greig, Mary Catherine Muller; Division 4, Sister M. St. Peter, S.S.J.

Miss Ella Delaney, Miss Jane McCarl and Miss Kathryn Cumming were members of the eliminating committee with Mrs. Thomas Stapleton and Miss Therese Byrne, judges.

Received as new members in the court were Mrs. William H. Evans, Mrs. Francis C. Iala, Miss Katherine Dunn and Mrs. Luke J. Bergan.

The court is planning a pilgrimage to the Shrine of the Most Holy Marys at Arcivescove during the summer.

OWEGO ROSARIANS TO INSTALL SLATE
OWEGO - The Rev. Michael L. Reagan, Moderator of the Rosary and Altar Society of St. Patrick's Church, will install the officers of the Society at the annual picnic to be held on Thursday, June 25.

Miss Genevieve Burch will be installed as the new president, and the other officers will be Miss Mary Haug, vice-president; Mrs. Larry Erickson, secretary; and Miss Leola Hall, treasurer. Mrs. Homer Rutherford is the Rosary Bands will assist them.

Camp Stella Maris
Has a few Places for Boys - Ages 8 to 15
For The Following Encampment
• Encampment B
(June 28-July 11) (2 weeks)
Family Rates for Brothers Enrolling in Above Encampment.
Call or Write CAMP OFFICE
50 Chestnut St. BAKER-7400

Barat League Sets Retreat

The Sacred Heart Convent in Rochester has scheduled a Closed Weekend Retreat for the members of the Barat League for High School Students from Chemung County. The exercises will open on Friday evening June 26th and will close on Sunday afternoon June 28th.

This retreat is set for "grandpa" here on another attempt to resurrect events of early days on this newspaper and on the Rochester Echo.

Handling the Catholic news in this city back in the 20s and 30s was done through the Echo. No definite pattern was available. Hustling for the old Echo, this writer naturally called on parishes where the paper had greater circulation and in St. Michael's parish a young fellow was noted taking care of bowling scores and showing promises in sports writing.

AN AQUINAS STUDENT was provided upon to put together a sports column, each week. This was later also furnished to the Courier Journal when the young sports writer joined the old Journal-American and advanced to night city editor on the American and assistant city editor on the Journal.

He came with the Courier Journal after the Hearst paper closed and was with us twice. He is William A. Lang, now president of Rochester Transit Corporation.

When helping the Echo, Bill was active in promoting sports. Edward L. Hannon, Chief of Police, was a former "11-a-year staff man" on the Echo and a short time ago in a letter to the "Data we go back as far as the days when you were in the Central Building with the antique desk and the old typewriter."

"Also, probably you and Bill Lang could tell the folks how you organized the Catholic Baseball League during the 'Crash days'—to prove you were ahead of the times in preventing what is now known as 'Olympic Incompetence!' On what a social worker might call 'group work'."

SPORTS WRITING was only the beginning for Bill Lang. He handled all kinds of stories and was sent to Florida once on an important assignment by the Hearst paper. Bylines were frequent on that story.

He has a penchant for puns. One of his headlines which he wrote when Communism began to threaten the church in Europe was: "This Bishop, Sees Red, Feels Blue." Of course, it wasn't printed.

Another young man who helped us out in the early Echo days was Emmett N. O'Brien, now head of Gannett's news bureau in Albany. As a student at Aquinas, Emmett covered local amateur play.

As long as newspapermen are being mentioned, Paul W. Finney was our Auburn correspondent for a time before coming to Rochester and now heading the sports department of the Democrat and Chronicle.

A note was received by this writer after a recent column from Harold A. Nichols, radio and television writer for the D. and C. Harold was our Clyde correspondent in other years and has consistently lent interest and support to the diocesan newspaper.

Also recalled is the active cooperation with the Catholic press given down through the years by Arthur P. Farren, Art as a student at Aquinas Institute wrote stories for the old Rochester Echo, later did the same for the Courier Journal. Now he handles public relations for Foley Associates and is a welcome visitor to this editorial office.

AT THE TOP OF THE CLASS

is usually a description of a person who is outstanding among his associates. And this is true of the priest who is the pastor of Meserich (Eilatogh). He is truly outstanding among the priests who have sacrificed themselves for the work of the missions. His devotedness is the most. According to the Apostolic Delegate, this pastor is the poorest and most isolated of all the missionaries in Ethiopia. He lives alone in the mountains exposed to biting winds of gales. He has no other human contact for all his missionary activities. He asks for nothing, but the Apostolic Delegate refuses to allow him to continue to live in circumstances unfit for a human being much less for a priest. Our appeal is for $2,000 to build a combination rectory and parish center for this devoted missionary who stands "at the top of the class."

YOU CAN LIVE AFTER DEATH IN HEAVEN IN UNION WITH OUR LORD. YOU CAN LIVE AFTER DEATH ON EARTH THROUGH YOUR GOOD WORKS IF YOU REMEMBER THE NEAR EAST MISSIONS IN YOUR WILL!

WHO WILL HELP CHRIST TO CARRY HIS CROSS? This question was asked for the first time on Good Friday and Simons of Cyrene was forced by the Roman soldiers to carry the Cross after the exhausted Christ. The Holy Father asks the same question today and the answer is so prompt and generous that there is no need for Roman soldiers or high pressure of any kind. The Holy Father needs help - Christ Himself, needs YOUR help to continue to carry His Cross through the lands of the Near East Missions. Will you help Him? A priceless gift to the Holy Father is a gift to Our Lord. . . a priceless gift to the Holy Father will help Our Lord in His Physical Body in the lands of suffering and poverty. Can you help?

SOON IT WILL BE TIME FOR VACATION. . . FOR US VACATION IS A CHANGE OF SCENE. . . FOR THE POOR REFUGEES A CHANGE OF SCENE WOULD BE FOOD ON THE TABLE. . . SOME DECENT CLOTHING. . . PROPER MEDICAL CARE. . . A FIT SCHOOL FOR THE CHILDREN. CAN YOU HELP US IN OUR WORK FOR THE REFUGEES. . . A CONTRIBUTION TO THE REFUGEE FUND WILL BRING SOME POOR CHILD AND HIS FAMILY CLOSER TO THE HUMAN STANDARD OF LIVING!

PIERRE and GEORGES have worked hard. . . they have prayed often and they are confident that Our Lord sends them to be priests to work for the welfare of souls in Lebanon. The families of these two young men are also willing to make the sacrifice. There is but one thing lacking. . . each boy must have a sponsor who will pay his necessary expenses of $100 a year during the six year seminary course. Perhaps you can help them.

WHEN WAS THE LAST TIME YOU HAD A MASS OFFERED FOR THE TEMPORAL OR ETERNAL WELFARE OF YOUR FATHER? THE HOLY SACRIFICE OF THE MASS WILL HELP THE LIVING AND THE DEAD.

SISTER GABRIEL AND SISTER YERONICA WISH TO ENTER THE CONVENT IN INDIA. Each nun must have a sponsor who will contribute $150 a year for the five year novitiate course. You may pay the money in any manner convenient while your "adopted daughter" prepares for her life of prayer and sacrifice.

Near East Missions
FRANCIS CARDINAL SPELMAN, President
Messrs. Peter P. Tully, Secretary
Send all communications to:
CATHOLIC NEAR EAST WELFARE ASSOCIATION
480 Lexington Ave. at 46th St. New York 17, N.Y.

Fine Food Fare for Families
TREADWAY INNS
ROCHESTER - CANANDAIGUA

FRESH RED SALMON WHOLE, PIECE OR STEAKS
Price's
FISH MARKET
385 EAST MAIN ST.
BA. 5-1810

Golden Wedding
QUARTS $4.99
Headed Whiskey - 75 Proof
Straight Whiskey
45% Alc. Special Sp. Br.
S. Fish Distilling Co., Alameda, Cal.

Near East Missions
FRANCIS CARDINAL SPELMAN, President
Messrs. Peter P. Tully, Secretary
Send all communications to:
CATHOLIC NEAR EAST WELFARE ASSOCIATION
480 Lexington Ave. at 46th St. New York 17, N.Y.