Waverly News First Graduation Held At St. James

By ELIZABETH TUCCINARDI

Waverly — The Rev. Bartholomew O'Brien, assistant pastor of St. Peter and Paul Church, Elmira, was the guest speaker at graduation of the first class from St. James school, Friday evening in the church.

Father O'Brien asked each of the graduates to send their pastor, Rev. G. Stuart Hogan, a personal letter thanking him for making it possible for them to have a Catholic school and to give their parents a spiritual inheritance for helping to finance this education. He told them "a Catholic education does not grow in the fields like daisies; it comes from dollars and cents, and the dollar cents come from the pockets of your parents."

At the close of school on Wednesday, other Catholic Daughters poetry prizes were awarded as follows: in the second division for 7th and 8th grades, second prize went to John O'Brien and third to Charles Forrest. The first division was comprised of 6th and 6th grades, and prizes were awarded to Dolores Tuccinardi, first; Kathleen McMahon, second; and Mary Kay Burkhardt, third.
