Parish Drive Tops Goal In Fund Appeal

Pledges totaling $236,782 — more than $50,000 over the maximum goal — were reported this week as results to date in the Holy Apostles Parish Diocesan Jubilee Building Fund Appeal.

More than 400 men conducted a parishwide solicitation on the first two Sundays this month. The Rt. Rev. Msgr. George V. Predmore, pastor, expressed appreciation to the committee and the parishioners for exceeding the goal.

PLEDGES WERE sought toward the proposed addition of six rooms to the present 12-classroom Holy Apostles School, the renovation of the present building, and expansion of the parish parking area.

Monsignor Predmore said the work will be completed in time for celebration of the 75th anniversary of the parish next February.

Heading committees for the appeal were Frank R. Camillo and Michael J. Duffy, general co-chairmen; George Capriella and Salvatore Leccese, advanced gifts; and James Murray and Frank Richter, advisory.

Campaign details were handled by the Rev. John E. Roach, assistant pastor. Assisting in direction of the appeal was the firm of Foley Associates Inc., a Rochester fund-raising organization.

Genevan Jim Hastings Takes Triple Honors

Geneva — James Joseph Hastings, son of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Hastings, 108 North St., was the recipient of triple honors recently.

Jim received the highest Scouting award of Eagle Scout, and the first trophy in this area for "Outstanding Scout of 1952-53" from the Geneva Veterans of Foreign Wars, and his diploma at the annual commencement of St. Francis de Sales School.

THE SCOUT honors were conferred at the Eagle Court of Honor and annual picnic of Troop 1 and Post 1.

Before a capably crowd of about 150 persons, friends, and scouts, Jim received the Eagle Scout award. Scoutmaster Charles Hutman conducted the ceremony by having the scouts light the trail to the rank of Eagle.

Jim is the youngest scout in the troop to attain this high honor. He has been Den Chief since Oct. 1952 and was senior patrol leader from March 1952 to February 1953 and activities leader during 1952 and again this year. He was awarded the Troop Leaders warrant in 1952.

A MEMBER OF the Order of the Arrow, he represented the troop at the Scout Government Day in Canandaigua.

In June, 1953, he was awarded the Ad Altare Dei Church award.

Mrs. Hastings pinned the Eagle badge on her son and in return received a miniature pin of Eagle.

Immediately following, Scoutmaster Hutman introduced Dean Lewis, chairman of the scout committee, and Edward Lindsay, post commander of the Geneva VFW who presented Jim the first trophy to be given in this area for "Outstanding Scout of 1952-53."
