

Workshop Draws Area Educators

The Workshop at Nazareth College is being conducted under the direction of the Curriculum Committee of the New York State Council of Catholic School Superintendents.

This organization, headed by Monsignor Arthur M. Leary of Ogdensburg, has directed the curriculum development in the Catholic Elementary Schools of New York State since 1935.

Concurrently with this Workshop, is the workshop of the Testing Group of the Curriculum Committee, who are meeting in Ogdensburg to write the 1939 examinations for the Catholic Elementary Schools of the Diocese represented.

Representatives are present from the Dioceses of Buffalo, Rochester, Syracuse, Ogdensburg, Albany and Rome. The workshop is under the supervision of Sister M. Fidelis, O.S.F., of Buffalo.

REV. WILLIAM M. ROCHE, Superintendent of Schools of the Diocese of Rochester, is the host Superintendent for the meeting.

The workshop will be in session at Nazareth College from June 30 to August 8.

Uncle Of Basilian On Way To Sainthood

Milwaukee (NC) — The first stage has been completed in the only cause for beatification and canonization ever started in the Archdiocese of Milwaukee, that of Father Stephen Eckert, O.F.M. Cap.

Father Stephen Eckert was an uncle of the Rev. Vincent Eckert, C.S.B., present treasurer of Aquinas Institute, Rochester. The local Basilian, Father recalls that his uncle was in Rochester on at least two occasions to give missions in German at Holy Family and Corpus Christi parishes.

Documents and testimony gathered during a seven-year investigation here and in London, Ont., and New York City have been mailed to Rome.

The documents included 900 pages written in longhand, a transcript of all testimony taken during nearly 40 hearings on the cause and eight typewritten volumes of Father Stephen's writings, each with 230 pages.

THE EVIDENCE will be examined in Rome and, if approved, a second step in the lengthy beatification investigation, the apostolic process, will be undertaken here.

Father Stephen was known as the "champion of the colored people." He was the first resident pastor of St. Benedict in Moor Missions for colored people in Milwaukee, serving there from 1913 until shortly before his death in 1923.

He was born at St. Columban, Ont., April 28, 1889. After completing his classical studies at St. Jerome's College, Kitchener, Ont., he entered the Capuchin Order in Detroit on May 21, 1891, and was ordained in Milwaukee July 2, 1896.

Before coming to Milwaukee, he served as a missionary in New York.

In the first month after his arrival in Milwaukee, he visited several hundred poor families in his parish.

For the next 10 years, he worked among the colored people of St. Benedict and begged for the poor of his parish. He founded a boarding school for Negro children which continued to operate until 1921.

While conducting a triduum in Iowa in 1923, he caught a severe cold which developed into pneumonia and he died in Milwaukee on February 16, 1924.

St. Cecilia Units Schedule Bazaar

The Rosary and Altar Society and the Men's Club of St. Cecilia's Church, Elmira will conduct a bazaar on July 23, 24 and 25.

Mr. William Fern and Jack Walsh are co-chairmen, and Mrs. Eugene Morrell, secretary.

The following are committee heads: Mrs. James Nelson, Mrs. Frank Nelson, Mrs. Mary Ball, Mrs. Peter Ball, Mrs. Vincent Dooley, Mrs. John Swinko, Mrs. Francis Johnston, Mrs. Robert Morrell, Mrs. Mae McMahon, Mrs. Bernard Roskopf, Mrs. Joseph Schultz, Mrs. Charles Grosvenor, Mrs. Marie Heppes, Miss Jean Riffe, Mr. James Falzer, Mr. Vincent Dooley, Peter Chalk, David Moynihan, David Chalk, Joseph Schultz, Ann Drew, Edw. Dinwiddie, William Maloney, Leonard Murray, James Ciune, Joseph Carbo, William O'Brien, Raymond Butler, John Hampton.

The bazaar will open with a doll carriage and bicycle parade Friday night, will be "old time night," and on Saturday night a five-cent supper will be featured.

Nursing Study State Award Given Deirdre Kilcoyne

Miss Deirdre A. Kilcoyne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. Kilcoyne, 313 Lorraine St., Elmira has been awarded a Regents scholarship for advanced education in nursing. It has been announced by the New York State Education Department.

This scholarship entitles Miss Kilcoyne to $70 for one year while attending an approved college in New York State and pursuing a program directed toward the administration or teaching of nursing.

THIRTY of these scholarships were announced on June 19. The awards are based upon the results of a competitive examination held June 6 in various centers throughout the state.

Miss Kilcoyne has been a student in the Division of Nursing, University of Buffalo during the past year, where she was the recipient of a federal grant. She will continue her studies on the state scholarship at the University of Buffalo.

Miss Kilcoyne is a graduate of St. Joseph's Hospital School of Nursing, Class of 1937. At that time, she was the winner of the Reverend Francis J. Walker Memorial Award for highest scholastic average.

Officers To Meet

The June meeting of the Committee for Postoffice Management and Research of the Marine Midland Corporation will be held in Elmira Thursday, June 25. Members of the committee are the senior investment officers of each of the principal member banks and representatives of the Investment Research Department in New York City.

Postal Workers Union Nears Convention Goal

Postal Workers Union announced this week reaching the halfway mark in cash and pledges toward goal of $9,000 for the first time at the 28th biennial National Convention of the National Association of Post Office and Postal Transportation Service Mail Handlers to be held at the Manger Hotel Sept. 14 through 17.

With a final month of solicitation ahead, convention treasurer William Cipriano feels confident that the goal will be reached.

Auburn Father Meets Fr. Pio

summed upon them, Father Martino was given permission to bring Mr. Wawraszek to Padre Pio's bedside in the infirmary.

The Auburn knelt beside the bed the stigmatic blessed him. Padre Pio listened carefully to the story of the sick daughter and the pilgrimage. He then said that they were to pray to the Blessed Virgin Mary for their souls and for him. He paused and said, "Tell them not to worry," and again, "Don't be worried."

The family returned to Auburn via London, but to him the high points of the pilgrimage will always be Lourdes, Rome and Padre Pio.

Prior to their departure Elmira had been given special Holy Communion instructions so that she would be able to receive Holy Communion while on the pilgrimage. Having made her first Holy Communion privately on the day prior to their departure, Bonnie received Holy Communion at Lourdes. Her family spoke in most grateful terms of this privilege and were most appreciative of the arrangements made by Father Jerome and by the Sisters of the Third Order of St. Francis who gave the necessary instructions.

BONNIE HAS certainly improved greatly in the past few months. She is a lively little miss who looks forward to the evening ride and ice cream cone routine of families on warm evenings. Her parents regard her improvement in the spirit of faith and hope and voice their gratitude to their pastor, to the other priests who helped them, but particularly to the Mother of God.

Our Lady, Queen of the Saints with Leader, Miss Patricia Curran of St. Peter and Paul's Parish included Misses Joan Dombrski and Lucy Fagnelli, St. Peter and Paul's, Jeanne Keating, St. Cecilia's, Elizabeth Schiefel, St. John's, Eileen Sullivan, St. Mary's, Judith Szeczen, St. Anthony's, Susan Wolcott, St. Charles and Mildred Ziminski, St. Peter and Paul's.

Miss Kathleen Coggins of Our Lady of Lourdes Parish was leader of the Band of Our Lady, Queen of the Saints, St. Peter and Paul's, Jeanne Keating, St. Cecilia's, Elizabeth Schiefel, St. John's, Eileen Sullivan, St. Mary's, Judith Szeczen, St. Anthony's, Susan Wolcott, St. Charles and Mildred Ziminski, St. Peter and Paul's.

Our Lady Seat of Wisdom Band — Leader, Miss Ann O'Brien — Notre Dame High School and Miss Patricia Conklyn, St. Peter and Paul's, Miss Mary Alice Frawley, St. Cecilia's, Miss Lavern Hardman, St. Mary's, Horseheads, Miss Rose Ann Hassen, St. Mary's, Misses Marianne McCarthy, Nancy O'Laughlin and Judith Rice, St. Peter's, Misses Patricia McPherson and Deanne Puzo, Notre Dame and Miss Elizabeth Raniewicz, St. Casimir's.
