DeSales High Students Win Citizenship Awards

Geneva—Eight De Sales High School students were presented with the Representative Citizen Award recently in City Hall.

They were: Anthony Maio, Jacquelyn Felice, seniors; John Howard, Karen McCusker, juniors; Edward Finnegan, Patricia Lannon, sophomores; and Dennis Mahoney and Mary Nicholson, freshmen.

DESALES FACULTY chose the students on the basis of: 1. Participation in civic, school or church activities; 2. respect for authority; 3. sound character and integrity; 4. good scholarship; 5. willingness to serve.

Funeral Services Held For Sister Anna Patricia

Funeral services for Sister Anna Patricia (Barry) of the Sisters of St. Joseph, who died July 1, 1959 after an illness of several months, were held at Nazareth Convent, Pittsford.

Monsignor Thomas F. Connors celebrated the Solemn Requiem Mass, followed by Monsignor John M. Duffy, deacon; Rev. Conrad Sundholm, sub-deacon; Rev. Albert Schaefer, master of ceremonies. Also present in the sanctuary were Monsignor Louis W. Edelman, Rev. E. Joseph Esser, Rev. Ignatius Cameron, Rev. William O'Toole, C.S.B., and Rev. Robert Kanka.

AT THE GRAVE the last blessing was given by Rev. Albert Schaefer, assisted by Monsignor Joseph H. Gefell.

Born in East Bloomfield, Sister Anna Patricia entered the Sisters of St. Joseph in 1916. She was a graduate of the Genesee Hospital School of Nursing, and as a nurse she filled supervisory positions in several institutions of the congregation, including Villa Marie, Wayland, and St. Joseph Hospital, Elmira.

She spent four years in Selma, Alabama, assisting in the establishment of the Good Samaritan Hospital there. For the last ten years she has resided at the Motherhouse.

Surviving are a sister, Mrs. Anastasia Spalding of Rochester, one brother, Richard Barry of Victor, and several nieces and nephews in Rochester, Holcomb, Victor and Canandaigua.

Mt. Carmel Studio Moves To New Quarters

Mt. Carmel Studio, religious goods store, will move to new and larger quarters, 241 Andrews St., next to the Rochester Abendpost, July 16, Feast of Our Lady of Mt. Carmel.

The studio will offer a complete selection of statues, prayer books, and rosaries for home, church or school.

This store has the agency for the Carmelite Monastery specializing in vestments and infant-of-Prague statue garments from the Monastery as well as priests' surplices, stoles and Mass vestments.

The Misses Julie and Elizabeth Gouveia are directors of the studio.

Nuns Summer Festival To Aid Infirmary

Sisters of St. Joseph will hold their annual summer festival on the Nazareth College campus in Pittsford on Tuesday and Wednesday, July 14 and 15.

A roast ham supper will be served from 5 to 9 p.m. New and attractive games of skill and a large variety of booths will offer entertainment.

APRONS, CHILDREN'S wear and hand made novelties will be on sale, as well as candy and baked goods. Supper tickets are $1 and may be purchased on the grounds.

Proceeds will be applied toward the construction cost of the new infirmary building for which plans are now being drawn.

Funeral Rites Held For Youth

Funeral Mass for John A. Montante, Jr., a graduate of St. Anthony of Padua School, class of 1958, who was drowned, Sunday, June 28, 1959 at Olean Lake near Albion was offered in St. Anthony Church, Thursday, July 2.

Young Montante, of 304 Jay St., was 15 years of age. Classmates of his were bearers. He had served as altar boy at St. Anthony's and had played on the basketball and baseball team. He had won trophies for his baseball, basketball and bowling ability.

He attended Jefferson High School and was a boy scout.

Surviving are his parents, John S. Sr. and Lucy; a sister, Carol and a brother David; also his maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph La Rocca of Jones Ave.

Arrangements were by De Bell Funeral Home.

Top Honor To Rochester Girl

Miss Marie Louise DeSando was named recipient of the Carrell-Medallion an honors competition held at St. Joseph College, Emmettburg, Md. last month. The medal is the highest award given by the college.

Miss DeSando held the top campus office during her senior year, that of president of the Children of Mary. She also served on the council of the Cooperative Government Assn. She is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Carl J. DeSando of Rochester.
