'The Guilty Man' On Marian Theater

Marian Theater will present a dramatization entitled, "The Guilty Man" on Sunday, July 12 from 10:10:30 p.m.

The program is carried on WMBO, 1340 in Auburn.

In the early thirties an empire was being born in Europe . . . being born in meeting halls and beer gardens, in athletic stadiums, gliding society conventions, marching clubs and rallies . . . an empire which was a machine with only one real purpose.

In 1939 its builders felt it had grown strong enough to accomplish that purpose, so they set their machine in motion . . . to conquer the world.

But this isn't so much a story of a war as it is the story of a man . . . a cog in the Warmach . . . the war machine of the Third Reich . . . and of a decision he had to make when the machine was beginning to fail.

"The Guilty Man" was written for Marian Theater by Robert Hugh O'Sullivan.

Egypt Aided

Cairo — (NC) — Food for 700,000 sick and needy Egyptians, most of whom are Moslems, is being distributed here by Catholic Relief Services-National Catholic Welfare Conference.

The food, surplus stocks donated by the U.S. government, is being distributed by CRS-NCWC to people in hospitals, sanitariums and other centers to supplement their present diet.

Audrey Hepburn portrays a nun-nurse in the Congo in "The Nun's Story" opening today at the Paramount Theatre in Rochester.

Watching The Screen

'Sister Luke'

By RAY SMITH

"THE NUN'S STORY" arrives at the Paramount Theater this week as Kathryn Hulme's controversial book is put on film. Some have said this volume should have been titled, "A Story by an Ex-Nun," as should have the film. With the front page article in the COURIER-JOURNAL a few weeks ago, the ladies of the cloth expressed their opinion on this movie. Now the world is waiting for me. (I can dream, can't I?) So here goes.

Audrey Hepburn is seen as Sister Luke in this 149 minute film for ADULTS AND ADOLESCENTS. The story is a long but absorbing study of the spiritual conflict of a Roman Catholic Nun, from her earliest days as a novice to her decision many years later to ask release from the vows she can not keep.

She is the daughter of a famous Belgian surgeon and enters the convent filled with the desire to devote her life to God through nursing in the Congo.

From the first she is troubled by her inability to place the rigid discipline of her order before the demands of suffering humanity, and by her instinct to be a nurse first, then a nun. Her inner revolt is climaxed when she is unable to forgive her country's enemies at the outset of World War II.

THE PICTURE has extraordinary beauty, making a dramatic contrast between the repressed quiet of the convent scenes, which in color and pattern resemble the great Flemish paintings, and the hot wild brilliance of the Belgian Congo.

Audrey Hepburn plays with an understated emotion that is deeply expressive. In the big distinguished cast which supports her, Dame Edith Evans as a Mother Superior, strong and austere yet understanding, gives powerful meaning to her role and to the film.

I can't speak for our Sisters in the convents but looking at the scenes with a woman's eye, I believe viewers will artistically and technically accept this film as a great motion picture.

THE WHOLE FAMILY can see a lot of muscles this week as "HERCULES" tip-toes into the Palace Theater in this Italian-made film of color and action.

Steve Reeves, better known for one of his several muscular titles than for his acting, does a surprisingly good job in the title role. Unarmed and single-handed, he subdues a lion, kills the cretan bull, outwits the Amazons, etc.

There are some good fight scenes, especially one of the chain-bound Hercules using his chains as deadly flails. Jason, well played by Fabrizio Mioni, adds his bit of action by killing the dragon that guards the Fleece. All in all, you should enjoy it, muscle-fans.

HORNELL — Lobsters are coming to Broadway with the comedy for the WHOLE FAMILY at the Majestic Theater, "IT HAPPENED TO JANE."

ELMIRA — You kids will have the strong man on the weekend for the WHOLE FAMILY to see with "HERCULES" at the Colonial Theater. ADULTS ONLY who may like a dull, deep drama can go to the Elmira Theater to see "THIS EARTH IS MINE."

Special Showing

A special screening of "The Nun's Story" for the priests and Sisters of the Diocese will be held this Saturday, July 11 at 8:45 a.m. at the Paramount Theater.

'My Three Angels' Set By Players

Players Theatre in Franklin Square opens its summer season with "My Three Angels" on Saturday, July 11 and continues through Tuesday night, July 14.

"My Three Angels," a comedy by Sam and Bella Spewack, tells a story of how three convicts become the good angels of a sadly harassed household.

Tickets are now on sale at the theatre's boxoffice, 4 North Street at Anglesea, from 11 a.m. to 9 p.m. All seats are reserved and tickets can be secured by stopping at the theatre or by calling BAker 5-4660. Tickets are $1.50.

Kentucky Builds Seven Hospitals

Covington — (NC) — Seven new Catholic hospitals have been constructed in the Diocese of Covington in the last 14 years, special edition of The Messenger, diocesan weekly newspaper, emphasizes.

The special hospital edition carries news stories, features and pictures on the dioceses's progress in providing medical care since 1945, when Bishop William T. Mulloy was enthroned as sixth Bishop of Covington.

At that time the diocese had two hospitals, the newest of them established 71 years earlier, in 1874. The See now has nine hospitals, as well as three nursing homes and a convent infirmary. Another nursing home is currently in the planning stage.

Prelate Spurs Strike End

St. Louis — (NC)—The publisher of the St. Louis Globe Democrat credited the Archbishop of St. Louis for an assist in ending the 13-week newspaper strike here.

The newspaper was published for the first time in more than 3 months after Archbishop Joseph E. Ritter had earlier asked management and striking members of the Newspaper Guild to resume serious negotiations for the good of the community.

The Archbishop's request was made without fanfare or advance publicity, in personal communications to representatives of the newspaper and the union.

Court Test Underway On Chicago Ban Of Film

Chicago — (NC) — A Chicago ban on certain sections of the film "Anatomy of a Murder," has been challenged in U.S. District Court here.

Hubert L. Will, attorney for Otto Preminger, producer of the movie, filed a petition in District Court for a restraining order which would allow the movie to be shown here.

Papers in the suit denied that the movie is immoral or obscene. They declared that the uncensored version has been shown without objection in Detroit, and that it is scheduled to be shown in New York and Los Angeles.

THE LEGAL action followed a ruling by Mayor Richard J. Daley of Chicago that certain language in the movie is obscene and immoral. Mayor Daley upheld a ban placed on the film by Police Commissioner Timothy O'Connor unless scenes in which the language is used are deleted.

"Anatomy of a Murder" has been placed in a separate classification by the National Legion of Decency.

Legion Puts Film In Separate Class

New York — (NC) — The National Legion of Decency has placed the Hollywood film, "Anatomy of a Murder," in a separate classification.

"The clinical analysis, with which the subject matter of this film (rape) is so explicitly and frankly detailed, is judged to exceed the bounds of moral acceptability and propriety in a mass medium of entertainment," the legion said.

The agency, which issues ratings on the moral tone of film, said a separate classification is given certain films, "which while not morally offensive in themselves, require some analysis and explanation as a protection to the uninformed against wrong interpretations and false conclusions."

"Anatomy of a Murder" was produced and directed by Otto Preminger and is being distributed by Columbia Pictures.

Based on a best-selling novel, it is concerned mostly with courtroom argument in the case of a man charged with homicide whose excuse is that his wife had been raped by the man he killed.
