

National Retreat Congress Set To Meet In Buffalo

The National Laywomen's Retreat Movement will hold its triennial Congress in Buffalo the weekend of September 11-13. Sponsoring the Congress this year is the Mother of Mercy Retreat House on Delaware Avenue, Buffalo. Headquarters will be at the Statler-Hilton hotel, where room reservations are now being received.

Proceeding the Congress, a Legislative Meeting on Thursday evening, September 10, will be attended by delegates of Retreat Houses and Retreat Leagues throughout the country.

The Council Retreat House in Rochester will be represented officially by Miss Geraldine Moyle, president of the Council Retreat League, and Miss Helen Durkin. On Friday, Sisters attending the Congress will meet for a special afternoon session.

THE MAIN program opens at 8:00 p.m. on Friday with a keynote address by Bishop John J. Wright, Episcopal Advisor of the Movement. The Saturday program, beginning with Mass, will be climaxed in the evening by a banquet, featuring as speaker Miss Elizabeth Held, Australian representative at the U.N. Sunday's program will close at the Mother of Mercy.

Elmira KC Picnic Lists Sports, Parade

Festivities of the 62nd Annual K. of C. Outing will get underway Sunday afternoon, August 9, at 1 p.m. in Ukrainian Park, Elmira Heights.

The event, one of the oldest outings in the Southern Tier, is sponsored by Elmira Council 229, Knights of Columbus, and is open to members and guests.

TICKETS WILL be available at the gate. The day's activities will actually start that morning, some miles removed from Ukrainian Park. The K. of C. Golf Tournament, conducted under the handicap system, will be held at the Mark Twain Municipal Course, starting at 10 a.m.

Once in the outing grounds, the knights and friends will join the customary parade honoring past grand knights. This is scheduled for 2 p.m. At 3 p.m. the athletes take over as the married knights, led by Capt. Michael F. Limoncelli, tangle with the single members, captained by Raymond B. Hourigan, in a softball game. The married knights are favored by five runs.

THERE WILL BE an award to the oldest member of Elmira Council in attendance. This will take place at 5 p.m. Included on the days menu will be shrimp, baked ham, turkey, hamburgers, hot dogs, claims, salads, beans, Italian sausage, sweet corn, submarine sandwiches supreme and beverages. Admission is $3. Cornelius L. Sullivan is general chairman. He is assisted by Francis R. Drake and Joseph A. Capozzi.

Engagement Told
Geneva — Mrs. Leona Altling, 595 Exchange St., has announced the engagement and forthcoming marriage of her niece, Miss Mary Ann L. Dival, to Franklin J. Jessmore of Canandaigua.

Miss Dival is the daughter of Charles J. Dival, Sr., of Milton, Pa., and the late Mr. Alice Dival.

VACATION SCHOOL Uses Boys Home Facilities
Sixteen boys and girls of the Dryden Catholic Mission made their first Holy Communion on Sunday, Aug. 2 at the 8:30 a.m. Mass. This climaxed the two-week Religious Vacation School conducted by the parish. The school had an average attendance over the two-week period of 160 children. Four Sisters and four lay teachers conducted the program.

Pastor Names Church Aides
Bath — Two women to care for the altar and sanctuary of St. Mary's Church, Bath, were named this week. Anyone having flowers for the altar is asked to call Mrs. Barbara Wilcox, RE 64225 or Mrs. Margaret Davy, PR 63917 during the month of August. Donors of flowers for the altar during the past month were thanked by Rev. John P. O'Malley, pastor in the parish hall, "The Bells of St. Mary's."
