

Cathedral Girl Scouts Schedule Encampment

Sacred Heart Girl Scouts are counting on a continuation of our hot summer for their 3-day encampment at Beechwood. At 11 a.m. on Friday, Sept. 4, 78 girls and their leaders will meet in the school yard with all the equipment needed to fill 3 camp units.

Father Gerald Appleby, newly appointed Girl Scout Chaplain, will wish the scouts a pleasant trip when they leave for camp.

On Saturday the girls will be offered camp craft and work on out-of-door requirements needed for their badge program. They will swim in the pool and hike around the camp ending the day with a campfire program.

Sunday at 9 a.m., Bishop Casey will say Mass at camp for all campers. Camp will break at 3 p.m. when parents will arrive to meet the girls.

Physical examinations will be given Sept. 1 at 2 p.m. in the school hall.

AMONG THE leaders attending camp will be: Mrs. John D. Fleming, neighborhood chairman; Mrs. Leon Miller, in charge of camp; Mrs. Robert Bach, Mrs. James McKeon, Mrs. William F. Smith, Miss Susan Platt, Mrs. Alphonse Vanden Brul, Mrs. Francis Sherwood, Mrs. Joseph Shatzel, Mrs. Robert Gotham and Mrs. Joseph Salata.

O'Brien-Handlan Nuptials Held

Geneva — Miss Mary Ann Handlan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Gregory Handlan, 96 Pultney St., was married to John William O'Brien, son of Dr. and Mrs. Elmer O'Brien, 840 Lake Rd., Webster, on Saturday, Aug. 22.

THE CEREMONY was performed at 11:30 a.m. by the Rev. Raymond P. Nolan, in St. Stephen's Church. Miss Mary Williams of Rochester, a classmate of the bride, was soloist. During the Mass, the Papal blessing was bestowed upon the bride and bridegroom.

Miss Ann Jean DeDominicis, Watkins Glen, a classmate of the bride, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were the Misses Judy Keaveney of Fitchburg, Mass., and Joan Stasko, Geneva, classmates of the bride.

Albert Bergeron of Rochester was best man. Ushers were Sam DeSisti, Bernard Kost, and Alfred O'Brien, cousin of the bridegroom; all of Rochester; and Patrick O'Brien of Geneva, a cousin of the bridegroom.

After a 10-day trip to Hawaii and San Francisco, Calif., the couple will live at 14 Granger Pl., Rochester.

The bride is a graduate of St. Stephen's School and DeSales High School, Geneva, and received her BS degree in speech science from Nazareth College. She is employed as a speech therapist with the Rochester Board of Education.
