Fr. Hogan To Address Barry Memorial Banquet

Father Joseph F. Hogan, chaplain of Notre Dame High School, will be the principal speaker at the Commodore John Barry Memorial Banquet, Sunday night, Sept. 13 at Columbus Center.

The banquet, honoring the Irish-born Revolutionary War hero, Commodore Barry, is sponsored by the Mgr. John J. Lee Division, Ancient Order of Hibernians.

Attending their first regular meeting will be the following new members, who received the First Degree of the Order recently: Jerome A. Fitzpatrick, John B. Kane, Charles N. Karl, James J. Maguire, Daniel W. McCarthy, John McNamara, John F. O'Mara and James H. Sullivan.

FINAL PLANS for the first Commodore John Barry Memorial Banquet will be discussed.

The officers and members of the Catholic Action Committee will meet at 7:30, prior to the business meeting.

Hall, John P. Allen, Joseph M. Shee, Thomas R. Stowell, John M. Galvin, James F. Lark, Robert L. Pautz, James M. Dean, Dr. James R. Powell, Francis M. Steed, Vincent G. Francis, Paul J. Sweeney, William J. O'Leary, Jr. and Raymond D. Hughes.

Reception, Thomas F. Cogins, Matthias F. Fennell, Francis J. Mookler and Atty. Thomas J. Sullivan.

The price of the banquet for members and guests is $5. per couple. Reservations are necessary and may be made with any member of the reservations committee.

Hibernian divisions throughout the state annually pay tribute to Commodore John Barry for his outstanding contributions to our country.

THE COMMODORE is known as the "Father of the American Navy." He not only was issued the first commission by the U.S. Navy, but was also the first commissioned officer in our Naval history to capture an enemy vessel.

He did this in 1776 when as commander of the "Lexington," he captured the British vessel, "Edward."

The Mgr. John J. Lee Division, Ancient Order of Hibernians, will meet Friday night.

Parish Women Hear Mrs. Humiston In Geneva

Geneva — Mrs. Julian Humiston of Gorham, president of the Ontario-Seneca-Yates Deanery of the National Council of Catholic Women, was guest speaker at the opening fall meeting of St. Stephen's Rosary and Altar Society.

The meeting which was preceded by a luncheon supper was held in the school hall. One hundred members were present.

Mrs. Humiston reviewed the highlights of the Deanery program and outlined the objectives of the organization.

THE REV. RAYMOND P. NOLAN, pastor of St. Stephen's Church, Mrs. Humiston, and Mrs. Arthur T. McAvoy, past president of the Rochester Diocesan Council, National Council of Catholic Women, were guests of the society.

Mrs. McAvoy gave a reading entitled, "Lovely Lady Dressed in Blue."

After the supper a brief business meeting was conducted by the president, Mrs. C. William Parker. She announced that the annual rummage sale will be held Sept. 18-19. Mrs. John Dougherty will be chairman.

The society is making plans for a public bazaar in November.

Dave Kelly Joins Aquinas Coaching Staff

The Very Rev. Ernest P. Magee, C.S.B., principal of Aquinas Institute, announced today that Dave Kelly has been added to the Aquinas Staff, as teacher and football coach.

Dave Kelly graduated from Brockport State Teacher's College in June of this year, after spending his practice teaching at Irondequoit High School.

THE FALL of 1954 Dave was a starting fullback on Stan Zajdel's Aquinas team. He played with such stars as Henry Angelson and Larry Pulvina. He will assist Joe Repko in coaching the Varsity Football team.

Dave joins Don Mack as new additions to the Aquinas Coaching Staff. The majority of the young laymen teaching at Aquinas are Aquinas graduates.

Dave Kelly is 23 years old, married and lives at 17 Austin Street.
