Steuben Deanery Program Explained At Meeting Sponsored By Bath DCCW

Hornell — The organization and economic work for the betterment and happiness of the people, the panel pointed out.

The Steuben Deanery, Diocesan Council of Catholic Women, were explained to 136 members of the Steuben Deanery of Bath at a meeting in the Moonlight Restaurant on Saturday, Sept. 19.

The Bath unit recently became affiliated with the Steuben Deanery, swelling its membership to more than 1,200 women from eight Catholic women's organizations.

The meeting was opened with recitation of the Rosary by the Rev. William Hickey, chaplain of St. James Mercy Hospital in Hornell.

The Rev. John P. O'Malley, pastor of St. Mary's, welcomed the group and reviewed some of the current parish projects.

MRS. ANDREW HORNELL, president of the Bath unit, introduced the program. It was in the form of a panel discussion led by Miss Josephine Fitzgerald, former Deanery president and now chairman of the Deanery's Organization and Development Committee.

Members of the panel were Mrs. J. Gerald Griffin, president of the Steuben Deanery; Miss Virginia Busong, past president of the Deanery; and Mrs. Andrew Lamb, chairman of the Public Relations Committee. All are of Hornell.

The panel explained that the Steuben Deanery is a part of the National Council of Catholic Women, which in turn is a branch of the National Catholic Welfare Conference (NCWC).

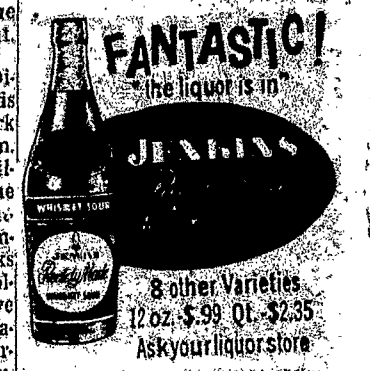

The NCWC was formed after World War I by the archbishops and bishops of the United States. In 1929, the National Council of Catholic Women (NCWC) was established.

The panel explained that the Steuben Deanery is a part of the National Council of Catholic Women, which in turn is a branch of the National Catholic Welfare Conference (NCWC).

MRS. JOHN A. BURKE has been named chairman and Miss Lena Allington is co-chairman of the Steuben Deanery's Organization and Development Committee.

Albert Ryan Named KC Youth Officer

Yonkers — Emmett Burke, State Deputy of the Knights of Columbus announces the appointment of Albert W. Ryan of Shortsville as Assistant Chairman of the State Youth Committee of the Knights of Columbus.

In making the appointment, Burke said it was in recognition of the work Ryan had done in the past year. He served as vice chairman of the Youth Committee and was instrumental in forming 3 new Circles of Columbian Squires at Elmira, Shortsville and Mt. Morris.

The Youth Committee sponsors Columbian Squires through local Councils of Knights of Columbus. These boys are between the ages of 13 and 18.

The state convention of the Columbian Squires will be held in Albany in June when a new staff of state officers will be elected.

THE STATE YOUTH Com-

tee is sponsoring an Oratorical Contest for the boys from the Freshman to the Junior level and a special contest for Seniors. The winner of this contest will be eligible to compete in the finals of the State Leagues Contest.

They also sponsor a State-wide basketball contest with finals being played in New York in the latter part of March.
