

Verein Units To Gather For Auburn State Meet

Auburn—The Sixty-fourth annual convention of the Catholic Central Union (Verein) of America, New York State Branch, the Fortieth Annual Convention of the National Catholic Women's Union, and the sixth annual convention of the youth section of each organization will be held in Auburn with St. Alphonsus as the host parish. The program opens today (Friday, September 25) and continues through Sunday.

A high point of the program will be Sunday noon when Bishop Kearney will be the celebrant of a Dialogue Mass in St. Alphonsus. The Bishop will deliver the convention sermon.

The Rev. Francis C. Waterman, pastor of St. Alphonsus, is honorary chairman with William McKeeney and Mrs. Charles Hutson, Auburn, chairman and co-chairman. Joseph Weaver is youth chairman and Wynne Weaver, youth co-chairman.

Other events include a Youth Forum scheduled for Friday evening, September 25, at Holy Family Auditorium, a Eucharistic Service at St. Alphonsus on Saturday evening, a Charity Aid and Mission Exhibit at St. Alphonsus School and a banquet at the Auburn Inn following the Sunday Mass. A Solemn Requiem High Mass will be offered on Saturday morning for the deceased of the three organizations.

RESOLUTIONS bearing upon important issues of the day are expected to come from the convention's deliberations. Included will be a declaration of loyalty and obedience to His Holiness Pope John XXIII, and a reedification of the men and women of the cause of the Church, with the pledge of continued assistance to the Bishop in the promotion of an active lay apostolate.

Rochester branches will send delegations. The Central Verein group comprises James Elmer, president, Otto Baumgart, Joseph Gervais, Henry Leitch, August M. Maier, Edward Micek, William Roeger, Corneilus Schmitt, Paul Stock and William Wittman.

The Women's branch will be represented by Miss Helen Keenan.

Mrs. John F. Delaney, assisted by Mrs. Michael Bufalini, has general charge of the show and card party. Fashioned by Personius-Malone, under the direction of Mrs. Betty Bouncer-Cramer, will be shown during the dessert.

Committee include: Tickets, Mrs. Robert J. Ryan and Mrs. Iver C. Johnson; refreshments, Mrs. Charles N. Karl, Mrs. Robert W. Gerner, Mrs. Edward F. Elston; setup, Mrs. O. C. Steiner, Mrs. Peter J. Myhalak; Mrs. Frank A. Bellgott, Miss Anne Hintz, Mrs. James W. O'Hara, Mrs. Vincent M. Sano, Mrs. James Manning.

Pastor Moves Into Rectory At Apalachin

Owego — The Rev. Valentine Jankowiak, who was recently appointed pastor of the newly formed parish of St. Margaret Mary, Apalachin, moved into the rectory, purchased by the members of the parish, on Tuesday, Sept. 22.

St. Margaret Mary's Church, until a short time ago, was a mission church of St. Patrick's, Owego, with the Rev. William J. O'Brien serving as pastor of both churches.

The new rectory, a six-room, ranch type house, was purchased by the parish from Michael Ziomba, a former resident of Apalachin, who has moved from the area.

Keys to the rectory were presented to Father Jankowiak on Friday, Sept. 18, by John McGovern, Sr., and Joseph Valabek, trustees of the church.

Rectory is located on New Street, Apalachin, directly opposite the church.
