Ithaca Parish Group Elects Jane Reed

Ithaca—Rosary and Altar Society of Immaculate Conception Church, Ithaca, held its first meeting of the year, Monday, Sept. 28.

The ceremony of installation of officers was conducted in church by the Rev. Otto J. Vogt, moderator, after the recitation of the rosary and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament.

The new officers are: President Miss Jane Reed; Vice President, Miss Theresa Rinckas; Secretary, Mrs. Gus Ginnetti; Financial Secretary, Mrs. John McCarthy; Treasurer, Mrs. William Stanton.

The business meeting was held in Parish Hall by Miss Jane Reed, President. She announced that Mrs. Fred. Harlock and Mrs. Harold Perkins were the Society's delegate and alternate delegate, respectively, to the Tompkins-Tioga Deanery of the Rochester Council of Catholic Women, and outlined briefly the responsibilities and privileges of the Society as an affiliation of the Council.

October 4, is the Society's Communion Sunday and members were asked to receive at this 8 a.m. Mass.

Miss Reed told members they would receive Rosary Society Membership Cards this year.

The meeting was turned over to Father Vogt, who offered a word of gratitude to the officers of last year. He then transferred to the new president the framed Paul Blessing bestowed on the Society, and which is the possession of the president while in office.

The members were reminded that they receive Communion as a group on two Sundays during the year—the Sunday preceding the Feast of The Holy Rosary and the Lenten Sunday coinciding with the Feast of The Seven Dolores.

Father Vogt told of the plans and program for the year. He asked for volunteers this year to launder altar linens, and said that interested members should contact the president, Miss Jane Reed. He also outlined several highlight programs on October 26, the regular meeting night. A Mass would be said by a priest of the Eastern Rite, and members should plan to receive Communion at this Mass. In November, Rev. William Thomas, Assistant Pastor of Immaculate Conception Church, will talk on the history of the parish. A newsletter giving the program for the year will be mailed to members in the near future.

Franciscan Appointed Corning K.C. Chaplain

Autumn Fete Planned By 135 Parishioners

A parish committee of 135 parishioners has been organized in St. Peter and Paul's Parish, Elmira, to head the Annual Autumn Festival scheduled for Friday and Saturday nights, Oct. 18 and 19.

James Danna, president of the Holy Name Society, and Mrs. O. G. Steiner, president of the Immaculate Heart Society, are cochairmen.

GOAL SET for the 1959 festival is a minimum of $3,000. One of the major projects for which the revenue will be used, is the enlargement of the "Book Fund" in the school.

A spokesman remarked in regard to the "Book Fund": "The larger this fund becomes, the larger will be the rental paid by the students for the use of the textbooks. The rental system is much cheaper for the parents than the direct purchase system. For this reason, parents and children should take an added interest in the coming Autumn Festival."

TICKETS WILL be distributed this Friday, October 2, by the members of the ticket committee which consists of Howard Coddington, Val Iprl, Mrs. Rosemary Edwards, and Mrs. Robert Gamer. They will be assisted by Maurice Boutin, Fran-
