Cooks Take Busmar's Holiday

What do busmen, mailmen and sailors do on their day off? Proverbially, each pursues his daily routine just the same: the busman takes a drive; the mailman a walk; and the sailor, a boatride through Central Park.

CARL BORGIH and Mary Bushie fall into a similar category. Both spend their working days with food: Carl is the chef at Eddie's Chop House; while Mary is a Home Economist at the Rochester Gas and Electric Co.

Their combined proficiencies shall be put to use on their day off as they prepare to save some 35 turkeys at the Annual Turkey Supper at the Church of the Good Shepherd, Henrietta on Saturday, Oct. 3.

There will be ample servings for over eight hundred people and sufficient personnel for quick, efficient service. The school hall is on East Henrietta rd., 1 mile south of the Fair grounds.

AN ENLARGED parking lot assures space for all who wish to attend. The affair is being produced by the Holy Name Society and the Altar and Rosary Society of the Church.

Reservations will assure preferred service but, first come, first serve! Tickets will be on sale at the door. Serving starts at 4:30 p.m.

Reservations may be made at the rectory or by phoning Gene Eckert, Hillside 5-7470-J or Mary Baily, Henrietta 123-J.

BUSMAN'S HOLIDAY is taken by Carl Borghi, chef at Eddie's Chop House, as he prepares to cook turkey dinner for his parish, Good Shepherd in Henrietta. Assisting him is Miss Mary Bushie, a Home Service Economist at Rochester Gas & Electric Corp., another parishioner.
