

U.S. Ranks Sixth In Missioners

Rome—(RNS)—The United States now ranks sixth among countries supplying priests for the foreign mission, the annual report of the Society for the Propagation of the Faith disclosed.

It said that a total of 757 American priests are working in Asia and Africa.

LEADING THE UNITED STATES in the number of missionary priests, the report stated, are France (3,039), Belgium (2,830), the Netherlands (2,119), Ireland (1,493), and Italy (1,400).

Trailing the United States were Germany (734), Canada (603), Spain (523), Great Britain (437), and Switzerland (42). Twenty other countries had a total of 433 priests in the foreign missions.

The report recalled that in the early part of the century, the United States was itself considered mission territory. At that time there were only 13 U.S. priests in the foreign missions.

Columbus—(NC)—All Catholics in the Columbus diocese will give the simple Latin responses at Masses during October, Bishop Clarence G. Isenmann has directed.

The Bishop's directive came after a year's study of the instruction issued in September, 1958, by the Sacred Congregation of Rites, calling for increased participation in the Mass by laymen.

Natives Adopt Blonde Tints

Sacramento—(NC)—Gentlemen, prefer blondes, even in the Solomon Islands, according to Sister Mary Hui Humila, C.S.J., a visitor here.

The nun related that native women on the island of Bute in the Solomons, frequently resort to new hair dyes to give a golden quality to their normally black, bushy hair.

Sister Humila has been doing missionary work the last 12 years in the Solomons for the Sisters of St. Joseph.

Big Cake For Little Ones

New York—(RNS)—Francis Cardinal Spellman, Archbishop of New York, admires the huge birthday cake which marked the 90th anniversary of the establishment of the New York Foundling Hospital by the Sisters of Charity. The institution cares for scores of abandoned infants or those born out of wedlock. Last year, 1,304 children were housed there.

Protestant Lay Mission Program Said Exemplary

Washington—(RNS)—Protestant lay missionary work overseas was praised for its organization, efficiency and dedication by a speaker at the 10th annual meeting of the Mission-Sending Societies of the Roman Catholic Church here.

Miss Virginia Leary of Evans, Ill., national training director of the International Catholic Auxiliaries, a lay missionary group, said that Catholics can learn much from the Protestant denominations concerning use of lay people in overseas mission work.

"The Protestant lay mission movement is older and better organized than our Catholic work," she told delegates at the meeting sponsored by the Mission Secretariate of the National Catholic Welfare Conference.

"Regardless of differences in dogma and practices, our problems of organization are the same," she pointed out.

Shrine Blessed In Corning

Corning—A shrine to the Virgin Mary designed and built by August Quattrini of 125 E. Corning Rd., was blessed Sunday by the Rev. William Tobin, administrator of St. Patrick's Church.

THE FIGURE of the Virgin in plaster, stands in a shrine of stone laid by Quattrini. The shrine is surrounded by a stone paved area. Crosses are built in the stone with red brick, and there is a glass cross at the top. Pink roses from Rome, Italy, light at night.

About 150 persons attended the dedication of the shrine on Sunday.

Cancer Cure Credited To Cardinal Newman

St. Helens—(NC)—One miracle has been approved in the beatification cause of the Venerable Dominic Barberi, Passionist priest, who received Cardinal Newman into the Church, it was announced here.

It was a miraculous cure of cancer, Father Bonaventura Wilson, C.P., rector of the Passionist house in London, told 5,000 people attending the annual pilgrimage to the Ven. Dominic's tomb at Sutton, St. Helens, Lancashire.

A second miracle — two are required for beatification — is under review and may be approved soon, Father Wilson said.

Ven. Dominic received John Henry Newman into the Church at Littlemore, his home near Oxford, on October 8, 1845. Cardinal Newman later described him as "a simple, holy man."

Korean Flood Victims Aided

Seoul—(NC)—Hundreds of Koreans made homeless by floods following two typhoons have been assisted by Catholic Relief Services-National Catholic Welfare Conference.

Some 8,500 people in Chunchon and neighboring areas were made homeless. Bishop Thomas Quinlan, S.S.C., Vicar Apostolic of Chunchon, requested a special allocation of food for the victims from CRS.

NEWCRS worldwide relief agency aided him as "a simple, holy man."

Scout Program For Boys Of Merit

Cincinnati—(NC)—Scout leaders here are planning a program to deal with the area of a boy's life between home and school.

This is the area, he said, where "the ideals he learns at home and in school are put to the test."

Father Robert Kirtland, Toledo area Boy Scout chaplain, emphasized the "idealistic" nature of the program at the 24th biennial meeting of the Provincial Catholic Committee on Scouting.

"It's not only idealistic," he added, "but it is an active program, too, and one that appeals to boys."

For example, he said, there is the theory that Scouting is a Catholicism in the making.

Puerto Ricans Honor St. Vincent De Paul

San Juan, Puerto Rico—(NC)—Bishop James P. Davis of San Juan opened the 300th anniversary year of the death of St. Vincent de Paul by offering Pontifical Mass in St. Vincent de Paul Church.

St. Vincent de Paul, founder of the Vincentian Family, died on September 27, 1660. Vincentians have been working in Puerto Rico for the past 85 years. In 1955 they were formed into a province of the community, which includes the Dominican Republic as well as Puerto Rico.
