Geneva — The recent visit of Khrushchev to the United States was the subject of a talk by the Rev. Richard Hart at the opening fall dinner meeting of the Knights of Columbus Auxiliary.

The De Sales High School chaplain was guest speaker at the dinner held in Seneca Lake Country Club.

Discussing the Soviet premier's visit, Father Hart expressed the hope that it would help to lessen world tension and give a "breather" in the threat of atomic warfare.

He explained that "our countries are miles apart politically" and that the east is geared for accepting and the west revolts against oppression of freedom. He emphasized the great force of Christianity in the world.

MRS. ARTHUR COWAN was chairman, Mrs. Carl Dreier and Mrs. Charles Hamill were co-chairmen.

Entertainment was provided by the Lynn Mitchell Dance Studio.

Next meeting will be held Oct. 19 and will be featured by a games program. Members will bring a wrapped quarter gift to be used as a prize.

Steuben Deanery Women Hear Hospital Chaplain

Hornell — Life can be lived simply and magnificently, as the Blessed Virgin Mary lived it, by glorifying God in all things, the Rev. William H. Hickey told.

FATHER HICKEY, who is spiritual director of the Deanery, said that life can become complicated if a person attempts to separate it into sections—giving a percentage of it to God and keeping another part for himself.

"The girl in the office, taking dictation, the school teacher, drilling her class, the nurse shaking down the thermometer, the patient lying upon the hospital bed, the housewife shopping for the evening meal, all give 100 per cent of their lives to God by imitating Mary," Father Hickey said.

MRS. RAYMOND MORITTE, vice president of the Deanery, presided at the breakfast Steuben women of the area to attend a meeting of St. Ann's Mothers' Club Wednesday at 8:30 p.m. in the Pine Room of the school.

Mrs. Theodore Strohmeyer of Rochester, diocesan chairman of the Organization and Development Committee of the DCWV, will be guest speaker.

Muench and Mrs. Kingdon Hammond were in Corning—Miss Sharon Rosalie Faulkner, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Faulkner of 5 Beartown Rd., Painted Post, was united in marriage to Patrick William Carline, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Carline of Pine Hill, on September 28 in St. Vincent de Paul Church.

Geneva—The Rev. Richard A. Hart, chaplain of De Sales High School, discussed the virgin visions of Fatima at a St. Stephen's Club meeting in the school hall.

He said the third message which can be made public is 1960 has caused a degree of hysteria in some places. He expressed doubt, however, that anything of "terrifying import" would be revealed.

FATHER HART'S talk was preceded by the Rosary and Benediction in the church. Changes in the meeting schedule, work of the telephone committee, and other operational procedures were discussed in a business session.

The 1959-60 state of officers will be installed later this month. Chairman of the Wednesday, Oct. 14 meeting were Mr. and Mrs. Paul Duchaney and Robert Breslin.
