Annual Card Party To Benefit Girls' Home

Holy Angels Guild will hold its annual benefit card party at the Manger Hotel on Friday, Oct. 16th at 8:30 p.m. Proceeds from the party will be turned over to the Holy Angels Home conducted by the Sisters of the Congregation of Our Lady of Mercy.

This "home away from home" founded in 1890 provides the fundamental social experience of family living for teenage girls whose homes for many reasons may be inadequate for character formation of educational opportunities.

Mrs. Eric P. Smith, President and Honorary Chairman has appointed Mrs. Robert L. Bleher as General Chairman and Mrs. ...

Personality Course Started At Mercy

The Army-Gullin Course of Personality Development will be given for the second successive year to students at Our Lady of Mercy High School the week of Oct. 13-18.

Designed to help women develop a more pleasing personality through a fuller appreciation of their faith, Miss Gullin's course takes the qualities of character and shows how to blend them with her beliefs.

This year at Mercy the course will be presented primarily to the freshmen class, while the upper classmen sessions will be in the nature of a "refresher" and a discussion of new problems and trends.

Cancer Fails To Halt Work Of Dr. Dooley

By ROD BROWNFIELD

Los Angeles — (NC) — There stood skinny Dr. Thomas A. Dooley, III, hunched over, shirt tail out, doing hairbrush therapy in his second-floor room at the Beverly Hilton Hotel.

Just out of New York's Memorial Hospital where he had cancer surgery, the lean surgeon demonstrated some more medical sophistication. Beginning at holster level he walked the fingers of his right hand up the wall.

The arm he was exercising was affected by the surgery. There and plenty of hairbrush therapy would mend it.

Underneath the fresh, white shirt he wore was an ugly hole in his chest that you could see. Fat into, he limped a little from the raw areas of his leg where neat strips of skin had been lifted to graft over his chest wound.

"Some people think it's a gimmick to make money," he said, grinning, as he dressed for a press conference.

It was the same old Dooley, scuffed up a bit, but only bodily.

"Where there used to be a chest bone, I have knees," he quipped.

The dapper young doctor, who has been making strong medicine for democracy in the jungles of the tiny kingdom of Laos, seemed calm in the face of the deadly illness doctors call "black cancer."

"Be sure and get the name right. It's malignant melanoma. It's been reported as sarcoma. But that is impossible."

He said 50 per cent of persons with his type of cancer live a year, the other 50 per cent over a year. How much over he didn't say.

TOM DOOLEY seemed glad to be back in the City of the Angels.

"We've been getting 400 to 500 letters a day since I've been sick." Forty per cent of them he said, were from the California area.

Dr. Dooley said nothing of pain or the uncertain future. But this he did say as he walked to the press conference:

"I've been used to seeing people who have been hit by cancer. I've seen, painful cancer at an extremely young age.

"It's a gift. He wants me to use it. Thousands of people know me. They follow me in what I do.

"Now I have cancer. That's not important. It's how I react to cancer. These people will see how I react.

"Thousands of women who
