Mission Crosses From Pope

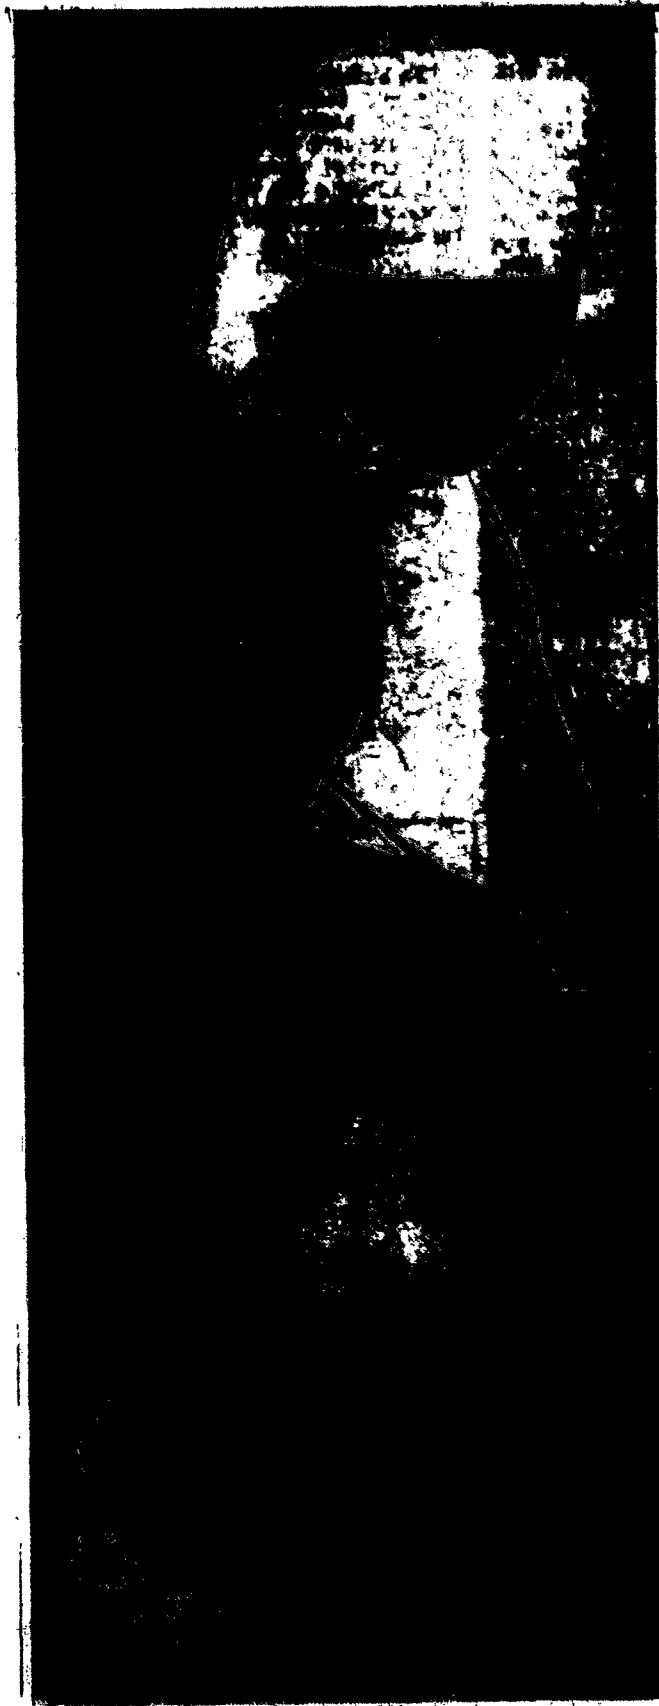

Vatican City—(RNS)—Pope John XXIII, at a Mass in St. Peter's Basilica in preparation for Mission Sunday, Oct. 12, handed a small crucifix to 502 newly-trained missionaries from the United States and 13 other countries who have been assigned to posts around the world.

The new missionaries included 278 priests and 226 nuns. Besides the United States, they came from Canada, England, Germany, Spain, Poland, Malia, Italy, China, Vietnam, Arabia, France, Portugal and Africa.

Four were Benedictine nuns who are going to open a new convent for contemplatives in the Belgian Congo. As he handed the crucifixes to the missionaries, the Pope repeated to each of them the words of Christ addressed to the Apostles: "Go ye therefore and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost, teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you."

Pope John exhorted the missionaries not to "put your trust in human wiles." He told them: "you are carrying the banner of peace on the advance lines of the evangelical teaching."

Destinations of the missionaries embraced virtually the whole world, from the North Pole to Korea. They were being sent to all parts of Africa, as well as to Chile, Colombia, Brazil, Australia, Ecuador, Mexico, Guatemala, Honduras, Argentina, Panama, Bolivia and Japan.
