

DCCW Lists National Aide

Top panelist at the 25th annual convention of the Rochester Diocesan Council, National Council of Catholic Women, Oct. 27 at the Chamber of Commerce will be Miss Mary Ruth Lewis, personal assistant to the executive secretary of the National Council of Catholic Women in Washington, D.C.

Miss Lewis will emphasize the role of the National Council and its membership of 9,000,000 Catholic women — in "bringing to others a deeper knowledge of Christ and His Church."

She will present, also, a display of the many publications of the National Council which are helpful in the making of an informed and articulate laity.

MISS LEWIS is a graduate of Saint Mary's College of Notre Dame, Ind. She is at present engaged in research in support of the overall NCCW program, and is editor of the English edition of the WUCWO, World Union of Catholic Women's Organizations, Information Bulletin.

Assisting Miss Lewis in the panel discussion will be Mrs. Paul Scott of Ithaca and Miss Sophie Cudde of Rochester. Mrs. Theodore Strohmeier will act as panel moderator. Mr. Lawrence P. Wells, convention chairman, has announced that the diocesan committee chairman have arranged "live" exhibits for the convention delegates — actual demonstrations of the various projects of the Council of Catholic Women.

Actors in these exhibits have been recruited from the affiliated organizations of the Diocesan Council in the diocese of Rochester. There will also be an "idea corner" set up by Mrs. Theodore Strohmeier, chairman of the Organization and Development Committee, which will offer information to the Council and aids to better programming. Mrs. Wells also promises movies "so that weary delegates may have sitting-down time."

TICKETS AND reservations for the convention luncheon at 12:15 may be obtained from Mrs. George P. Vogt and Mrs. Richard L. Weider, ticket children. The luncheon, which will feature speaker Mrs. John W. O'Brien, will be a birthday celebration for the Bishop Kearney, episcopal moderator of the Council of Catholic Women.
