Mission Nuns Visit Auburn Mothers' Club

Auburn.—The Mothers' Club of St. Mary's Church, Auburn, opened their fall program with a pot luck supper served at 6:30 p.m. Wednesday evening, Oct. 7, in Lyceum Hall. Mrs. Martin Byrne was general chairman assisted by a committee of mothers of seventh and eighth grade pupils.

The Rt. Rev. Magr. William E. Cowan, pastor of St. Mary's gave the invocation. After a much newly elected president, Mrs. Thomas F. Ferguson, conducted a short business meeting.

PLANS FOR the annual children's Christmas party were discussed and all were urged to support the forthcoming talent show to be presented on Oct. 18 and 21 in Lyceum Hall, featuring many of the school children.

Rev. Arthur J. Hack, assistant at St. Mary's, said the closing prayer and then addressed the mothers, reminding them of the importance of whole family attendance at Mass and the family Rosary at home.

Sister M. Aloysius and Sister M. Zita of the Medical Missionaries of Mary presented a most interesting movie depicting the founding of their order in Africa in 1857. This order of Nursing Sisters treat thousands of sick natives yearly in their clinics and by traveling about the villages.
