

Catholics Back Nehru In India

Vienna — (RNS) — Valerian Cardinal Gracis, Archbishop of Bombay, declared here that India's five and one-half million Roman Catholics fully support the Nehru government because of the complete freedom of religion guaranteed by the Indian federal constitution.

The primate spoke at a luncheon in his honor given by Franz Cardinal Koenig, Archbishop of Vienna, and attended by numerous high church and government leaders.

Existing good Church-State relations in his country, but actually encourage them by offering subsidies to educational institutions which meet standards set by the state.

"There are many Catholic schools and colleges which are receiving such grants," he noted. "But Catholic schools are really public, in the sense that many non-Catholics and even non-Christian attend, due to the high scholastic rating of such institutions."

Massive Reluctance Jesuit Scores Catholic Apathy

Washington — (NC) — The late Pope Pius XII was an unabashed internationalist who "very firmly committed the Holy See to the support of the basic principles behind the movement for world federalism."

However, Father Robert F. Drinan, S.J., declared in his keynote address at the 32nd annual meeting of the Catholic Association for International Peace, "the Catholic community in America has by instinct and tradition never been fully in total sympathy with the world federalism advocated by the late Holy Father."

Father Drinan, dean of the Boston College school of law, added: "It is indeed a tragedy that the Church in the United States, blessed with remarkable fidelity to the teachings of the Holy See, has failed in a notable way even to know, much less to radiate, the principles of international brotherhood so brilliantly expounded to the world by Pius XII."

The speaker complained of the fact that American Catholics "seem to manifest a massive reluctance to endorse any form of internationalism which requires the smallest surrender of American sovereignty."

150,000 Pilgrims At Fatima

Fatima — (RNS) — An estimated 150,000 pilgrims gathered here to commemorate the 32nd anniversary of the final apparition of Our Lady of Fatima to the three shepherd children in 1917. The first of the apparitions took place on May 13 that year.

The ceremonies, lasting two days, were highlighted by candlelight processions culminating in Solemn Masses on the steps outside the Fatima Basilica. The Masses were offered outside because of the impossibility of accommodating all the pilgrims inside.
