Stan Ciesla and Mike Lesch, led the Carmelites' offensive attack. Ciesla, a junior end, scored two touchdowns and hit pay dirt for one extra point. Lesch, Coach Bucca's stellar halfback, scampered 65 yards for the other six-pointer. Signal-caller Bob Hearn and wing-man Duke Schneider accounted for the other two extra points.

Geneva's sole tally came when halfback Bob Carter cut through tight tackle for 46 yards.
The Buccelmen are now 2-2 in their rookie year in the Wayne-Finger Lakes area. Next foe will be Waterloo Central High School.

Theo. A. Busch of Auburn, New York, 7th District Chairman, Oratorical Contest Committee, Department of New York, The American Legion, announced today. The 7th District comprises the counties of Cayuga, Livingston, Monroe, Ontario, Seneca, Steuben, Wayne and Yates.

Busch also announced that advance information and copies of brochures giving complete details and necessary data for participation in the contest are now in the hands of the principals of all central, public and parochial high schools in the eight counties mentioned.

Christ The King Ceremony Held

Geneva — To celebrate the Feast of Christ the King, the students of DeSales High School presented a program today (Friday) in which they consecrated the school and all its activities to Christ the King.

THE PROGRAM began with the reading of the gospel of Christ the King by Rev. Richard A. Hart, chaplain. Following the gospel came the act of consecration by representatives of the four classes and the presidents of the various school organizations.

The entire student body combined to sing the acclamations to Christ the King. Procession of the Blessed Sacrament preceded Benediction and the act of consecration to the Sacred Heart was read during the Benediction. Singing of the Catholic Action followed.
