Vincetians Give Lourdes Retreat
A two week mission for the parishioners of Our Lady of Lourdes Parish, Brighton, commenced last Sunday evening for all the women of the parish, married and single, and also the young ladies of high school age. The fine turnout, caused the pastor, Monsignor Leslie Whalen, to request the women to form car pools where it is possible in order to make parking more accessible for those who were coming from the extremities of the parish.
CHILDREN OF the parish are having their mission this week.
The mission blessing of babies is scheduled for Saturday at 11 a.m. Fathers Joseph Keefe CM. and Louis Storms CM. of St. Mary's Mission House, Toronto, are conducting the mission.
The men of the parish will begin special exercises of their mission Sunday night at 7:45.

Red Mass Opens Parliament
London — (RNS) — Catholic members of both houses of parliament, for the first time in history, attended a Red Mass on the occasion of the state opening of parliament.
The Red Mass, or Votive Mass of the Holy Ghost, was offered by William Cardinal Godfrey, Archbishop of Westminster, in the crypt of Westminster Cathedral.
The English prelate also said he does not believe Pope John's calling an "ecumenical council" of Catholic bishops is "nearly as significant" as it would be, if the meeting included Christians other than Roman Catholics.
But, he added, "the present Pope seems to be . . . filled with a spirit of Christian charity, and where Christian charity exists, the results are quite incalculable."
Commenting on Protestant aspects of the ecumenical movement toward Christian unity, Dr. Ramsey noted that negotiations between the Church of England and the Methodist Church eventually "may bear fruit." He said, "They aren't making the mistake of being in a hurry or assuming their differences are trivial."
The archbishop also stated opinions on several other topics, including Billy Graham.
Although Billy Graham's 1954-55 crusade in Britain produced converts to Christianity, Dr. Ramsey said it also strengthened the fundamentalist cause — a "harmful movement" according to the archbishop because it "alienates thoughtful people."
Eight grade boys who were advanced to the highest rank in the Knights of the Altar are the following: Timothy Chuey, Frank De Bellis, John La Porta, Ronald Monacelli, Donald Moye, John De Rosa, Michael Struble, Michael Telle, John Wysocky. Following the Mass the altar boys and their parents attended a breakfast in the School Hall.

New Leaders Of Peace Group

Anglican Ranks Pope
First But Not Infallible
Chicago — (RNS) — Dr. Arthur Michael Ramsey, Anglican Archbishop of York and second-ranking prelate of the Church of England, said here he would accept the Pope as the Christian Church's No. 1 but not infallible leader.
"I am willing to accept the Pope as a presiding bishop among the bishops of Christendom, but not as infallible," Archbishop Ramsey said at a news conference here. This means, he added, he would consider the Pope as "first among equals."
DR. RAMSEY was visiting Chicago in connection with the Hale memorial lectures which he delivered at Seabury-Western Theological Seminary in nearby Evanston, Ill.
The English prelate also said he does not believe Pope John's calling an "ecumenical council" of Catholic bishops is "nearly as significant" as it would be, if the meeting included Christians other than Roman Catholics.
But, he added, "the present Pope seems to be . . . filled with a spirit of Christian charity, and where Christian charity exists, the results are quite incalculable."
