Lourdes Women Sponsor, Conduct New Library

The opening of school at Our Lady of Lourdes in Brighton this September became a noteworthy event when a library was added to the school's complement of class rooms.

The library, which had been set aside and furnished for that purpose by the former pastor, the late Rt. Rev. Msgr. Francis Luddy, became a reality when the Rotary Society of the parish assumed the sponsorship and administration of the library.

Under the guidance of the present pastor, Rt. Rev. Msgr. Leslie Whelan and the principal, Sister Louise Marie, S.S.J., the Rotary Society is presently building an excellent basic collection of books for elementary grade children.

BOOKS WHICH were donated by the children themselves in their eagerness to augment the collection, have been prepared for circulation by Rotary Society volunteers who also staff the library.

The library which is open every school day and after school is staffed by the following volunteers: the Mesdames Leslie Dollinger, Victor Boero, Robert Weingartner, Raymond Petcher, William Sullivan, John Brady, Sheldon Koch, Frank Strenzwick, James Blitt, Arthur Gibbs, and James Koller.

ALONG WITH the new Audio-Visual classrooms, the library will be exhibited to parents when Our Lady of Lourdes School holds an "Open-House" on the evening of Nov. 19.
