

St. Agnes Takes Columbia Award

The Columbia Press Medalist award has just been granted to the 1939 yearbook publication, "The Palms" of St. Agnes High School. Out of a possible 1,000 points, 983 were earned by the book at the New York meeting. This is the fourth first-place rating received this year according to Sister Mary John, adviser. EARLIER AWARDS are National School Yearbook Association—A-plus; Catholic Press Association—All Catholic. Editor-in-chief for the prize-winning book was Judy Weber. She was assisted by Patricia Burke and Mary Ann Kinsky. The winners of the local Gannett awards will be announced tomorrow, October 31, at the Press dinner here at the University of Rochester.
