Parley At Nurses' Meet

Principals confer at a meeting of the Auburn Chapter of the National Council of Catholic Nurses in the auxiliary room at Mercy Hospital, Auburn. From left are: Rev. Paul R. Schnacky, assistant paster of Holy Family Church, moderator; Sister Mary Amata, program chairman; Mrs. Edmund F. Linehan, Geneva, president of the Rochester Diocesan Council of Catholic Nurses, speaker; and Mrs. William M. Foster, vice president of the Auburn Chapter.

COURIER-JOURNAL Auburn-Miss Eve Firra of Friday, October 30, 1959 Ithaca, Diocesan Chairman of International Relations, addressed the members of the Rosary and Scapular Society of St. Mary's Church, Auburn, on

In her talk Miss Firra stressed the importance of having more Catholic participation in extending hospitality to the approximately 1,000 international studenis now studying in schools and colleges in the Rochester

Diocese. It would be desirable; she said, to do this on an individual and group basis. At present most of the foreign students leave the Umited States without having any direct contact with Catholic families or organizations other than their own college Newman Clubs.

MISS CATHERINE M. BURNS, president, presided at the business meeting preceding the talk given by Miss Firra. Reports were given by the chairmen of the standing com-mittees. Announcement was made that Miss Burns and Miss Laura M. Failey would be in attendance at the 25th Annual Convention of the Rochester Di-

James Kenny.
