Sacred Heart Rosarians To Aid Holy Childhood

Again this year, the only fundraising project of the Sacred Heart Cathedral Rosary Guild will be the Seventh Annual Card Party to benefit the School of the Holy Childhood, to be held in the school auditorium on Flower City Park, Nov. 13, at 8 p.m.

There will be refreshments, table games, and table treats. Those who wish to play at home should turn in their tickets before the party.

The School of the Holy Childhood is operated by the Sisters of St. Joseph for children who require special development to help them become socially and economically good citizens.

WHILE THERE IS a tuition charge, it provides less than one-third the operating costs, the balance is provided by friends of the School of the Holy Childhood and organizations sponsoring events such as this annual card party at Sacred Heart Cathedral Hall.
