

Mission Day Slated At Nazareth Colleg.

Plans are under way for the Nazareth College Mission Day, scheduled for Friday, Nov. 13, under the chairmanship of Kay Barrett and Barbara Brunner.

A SERIES of interesting booths will be set up with many new features added to those of earlier years. Nursing students will preside at a cooked food and delicatessen shop. Art students will offer hand-wrought jewelry, hand-printed Christmas cards, and a portrait booth.

The Biology Department will present a white mice "marathon." All Nazareth students and prospective students and their friends are looking forward to the Nazareth Mascot booth.

Everyone will have an opportunity to do Christmas shopping at the Gift Booth, where a large variety of gifts will be on display in addition to cards, ribbon, paper and gift-wrapping accessories.

THE PROGRAM is under the direction of Deputy Grand Knight William Seitz and his Fraternal Activities committee. Margaret Quinn is chairman of the Auxiliary hostesses committee, assisted by Bernice Parente, Vera Quinlan and Theresa Randall.

After the regular business meeting on Thursday, Nov. 12, the ceremonial committee under the direction of Past Grand Knight Peter Plech will present Commemorative Services to honor the former members of the Council who died during the past year.

Medical School Bombay—(NO)—India's first Catholic medical school will be opened in two years, it has been announced here by Cardinal Gracias of Bombay.

Memorial Rite Scheduled By Ithaca Knights

Ithaca—Grand Knight John E. Barrett of Ithaca Council 277, Knights of Columbus has announced that the annual November Memorial program will be held in two sections.

On Sunday, Nov. 8, members of the Council and also of the Holy Name Society will leave the clubrooms at 114 South Albany street at 7:45 a.m. and march behind the Fourth Degree Color Guard to Immaculate Conception Church to assist in the annual Communion Mass at 8 a.m. A breakfast will be served in the clubrooms by members of the Ladies Auxiliary at 9.

THE PROGRAM is under the direction of Deputy Grand Knight William Seitz and his Fraternal Activities committee. Margaret Quinn is chairman of the Auxiliary hostesses committee, assisted by Bernice Parente, Vera Quinlan and Theresa Randall.

After the regular business meeting on Thursday, Nov. 12, the ceremonial committee under the direction of Past Grand Knight Peter Plech will present Commemorative Services to honor the former members of the Council who died during the past year.

Medical School Bombay—(NO)—India's first Catholic medical school will be opened in two years, it has been announced here by Cardinal Gracias of Bombay.

CATHOLIC DAUGHTERS Meeting Listed

PENN YAN

Penn Yan—Court St. Michael, Catholic Daughters of America met Oct. 14 with Mrs. Egan as hostess. Mrs. Egan presided, presiding. The Charity Committee sponsored a rummage sale, Oct. 20 and 31 at the former Tillman Store on Elm St. Mrs. Elmer Parrshall was chairman.

The court was host to the visiting Russian students touring Yates County at a luncheon in the church hall, Nov. 5.

A Newman Club Breakfast was planned at the meeting. The next meeting is scheduled for Nov. 11.

ROCHESTER

Catholic Daughters of America, Court Rochester will meet Tuesday, Nov. 10 at 8 p.m. in Columbus Civic Center. Members are asked to bring canned foodstuffs for the Carmelle Harvest. Rev. Joseph Dalley, court chaplain, will be guest speaker.

Parents Go To College

Parents went to College this past weekend to learn what their daughters learn. Bishop Kearney took part in Sunday's capping ceremony for the freshman class. Jean Lynch bows to receive her academic cap from him. Ceramic students show techniques of their art in right photo and, above right, Sister Christine Frances hears Dr. James Eastham, former math professor at Nazareth College, gives pointers to his daughter Charlotte as her freshmen classmates look on. Over 400 attended the Friday through Sunday program at the East Ave. college for women conducted by the Sisters of St. Joseph.

St. Joseph's Hospital Lists Bazaar Nov. 12

The Women's Auxiliary of St. Joseph's Hospital will have its annual bazaar in the Dunn Memorial on Nov. 12 from 2 p.m. to 10 p.m. A Harvest Supper will be served from 5 p.m. to 7 p.m.

Mrs. Leon C. Hong is supper chairman with Mrs. George Hughes as co-chairman. The variety booth headed by Mrs. Walter Erwin, Sr. and Mrs. Lawrence Colquhoun, will have a complete showing of unusual articles very suitable for Christmas gifts.

THE DOLL FAIR, in charge of Mrs. Harold Lounsbury and Mrs. Douglas Reed, will be stocked with over 200 dolls of all types and sizes. In addition to the dolls, there will be a unique assortment of doll houses. These are in white and pastel enamel with hand-painted floral designs.

Candy booth, headed by Mrs. Agnes Casik and Mrs. Frank Bedenk will display home-made candies only. Special fudge, caramel bars and bonbons will be featured.

Religious booth will be in charge of Sister M. Ligouri. This booth will carry a complete line of rosaries, medals, statues, pictures, and prayer books as well as very beautiful Christmas Cards and Christmas gift wrapping. A special section will cater to children attending the bazaar.

The fish pond, charge of Miss Genevieve Madigan, is being planned to provide fun and surprises to both children and adults.

GAMES WILL be in charge of Mr. James Murphy and Miss Catherine Larkin.

Mrs. Robert Huddle and Sister M. Ligouri are in charge of publicity.

Mrs. James Steiner heads the ticket committee with Miss Emily Campbell as co-chairman.

Elmira Knights Sponsor Supper

Elmira Council 228, Knights of Columbus, will sponsor a First Friday Supper on Nov. 6 at 6:30 p.m. at Columbus Center.

The Rev. John S. Manley, pastor of St. Mary's Church, will be the main speaker.

Frank D. Maloney, council chancellor, is chairman of the series. Charles N. Kal will be in charge of the meal.

THE SUPPER is open to any Catholic man of the Elmira area, who receives Holy Communion on First Friday. The time of the supper should make it very easy for any man to attend, especially with the evening Mass being offered in the area.

AOH Women Given Degree In Syracuse

Auburn—The Onondaga, Cayuga County, and the State of Officers, Miss Marie English, president; Miss Lillian McManus, state vice president; Mrs. Mat. McArdle, past state president; J. William Reagan, state treasurer and president of the Men's Division of Onondaga County, Thomas McNabb, Cayuga County Men's Division president.

FOLLOWING THE degree a dinner was served by the Onondaga Ladies Auxiliary, which included songs and step dancing by the Auburn Group. Accompanists were Mrs. Clarence Maywalt and Mrs. Frederick Herring.

Forty Hours

Saturday, Nov. 7—Sacred Heart Convent, Rochester

Sunday, Nov. 8—Church of the Holy Spirit, Rochester; Our Mother of Sorrows, Greece; St. Francis, Auburn; St. Mary's, Elmira; St. James, New York; Church of the Epiphany, Batavia; St. Joseph, Wayland; St. Leo, Hilton.

The Captain's Off His Rocker...

...and heading for his favorite landmark, HOWARD JOHNSON'S, where you can enjoy the most delicious treasure to ever come from the sea... "Tenderloin" Fried Clams.

Tendersweet FRIED CLAMS $1.35

HOWARD JOHNSON'S

Restaurants conveniently located at:

- 1000 Broadway (Rochester)
- 1000 Broadway (Syracuse)
- 1000 Broadway (Buffalo)
- 1000 Broadway (Albany)
- 1000 Broadway (Schenectady)
- 1000 Broadway (Watkinsville)
- 1000 Broadway (Geneva)
- 1000 Broadway (Canton)
- 1000 Broadway (Tonawanda)
- 1000 Broadway (Tonawanda)
- 1000 Broadway (Tonawanda)

boys beat the storm with winter-right clothes from McGurdy's available everywhere and prices with easy quality fitting

6-98

Washable and extra warm in rayon nylon gabardine with cold-proof quilted lining. Built-up suspender style with front slip, extra-wear knee patches. Navy or charcoal, 614.

the right mittens keep his hands warm and dry

D. Pile lined nylon mittens in red, navy or brown. 1.69

E. Plastic mittens with furry pile lining... sure to keep hands warm and dry. Red, navy or brown. 1.79

F. Lined brown leather, 6-9. 1.98

McGurdy's Boy Shop, Third floor, Northgate; McGurdy's of Geneva

Your Blueprint for Better Living . . .

VILMAR Blue Ribbon Homes

by Joseph Eritreas, Builder

so MUCH MORE for your money

70 Blue Ribbon Features including:

- 100% completely top soiled
- Combination storm windows and screens
- General Electric Automatic Heat
- American Standard Bathroom Fixtures
- Pipe Paneled Stair Walls
- Ornamental Iron Stair Rails
- Built-in bath vanity with recess basin
- Bathroom built-in clothes hamper
- Bathroom built-in towel closet

FROM $14,000

How To Reach VILMAR

TAKE SCOTTSVILLE ROAD to Scottsville village limits. Turn right onto North Road to home. Ave. follow VILMAR sign.