McQuaid Runners End Season Of Victories

The Cross-Country team of McQuaid Jesuit High School just completed its most successful season, by capturing the Brighton Invitational with a low score of 40 points.

McQuaid's score was 26 points lower than Monroe County Champions East Rochester who finished second. This capped a season of victories which included the Class A Inter-school Invitational at both Alfred-Almond and Watertown.

Outstanding runner for McQuaid was senior Bob Wilson, from Holy Trinity in Webster, who clinaxed four years of work with a third place and new school record in the Brighton run. Bob hopes to continue his running at either Holy Cross or Niagara.

Golden Jubilee Marked By Echo Singing Group

Fifty years in the history of the Rochester Echo Singing Association were recalled on Saturday evening, Oct. 31, when the association celebrated its golden anniversary with a banquet and ball held at St. Stanislaus auditorium.

Main speaker on the evening program was Children's Court Judge Joseph Fritsch who outlined the factors contributing to the organization's success as "dependence upon God, a noble purpose, leadership and sacrifice."

FLOYD BALCERAK was toastmaster for the affair. The invocation was given by the Rev. Chester Klocak, assistant pastor of St. Stanislaus Church, who also lead the assemblage in prayers for the repose of the soul of the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Joseph A. Balcerak, Echo chaplain, who passed away a short time before the affair began.

Greetings for the occasion were extended by Vice-Mayor Joseph Farbo, representing the city of Rochester, Councilman John Bittner, Mrs. Kajetan Panski, president of the Echo Ladies' Auxiliary, and Joseph Kowalski, representing the Association's "life members."

A brief history of the organization was given by Henry Laboski. Completing the speaker's roster were Calimir Mielus, Henry Cwalina, Henry Wenglowski and Leonard Tomczak.

Association President Frank Tomkowiak paid homage to those whose sacrifices and ideals formed the foundation for the organization as it is today and offered tribute to the various special activity groups which are a part of the Association.

THE "GOLDEN BOOK," a history of the Echo Association from its founding by the late Joseph Kuzminski in 1909 to the present time, written by Henry Laboski and Roman Kwiatkowski was presented to those attending.

Dancing to the music of Al Soyka's orchestra, popular Connecticut recording group, concluded the evening's festivities.

Mrs. William Sparrow, Boyd Peterson, and Maurice Buckley were judges.

Mrs. George Jenkins won the special prize, a Hi-Fi stereo set, offered by the nurses; and Mrs. Marian Marabito won another special prize.

Mrs. Robert Linhan was chairman of the party assisted by Miss Mary Sgro, Miss Eileen Jones, Miss Mary Lou Palmiano, and Mr. Joseph Gallasso.

San Palermo's orchestra provided the music for dancing. Refreshments included cider and doughnuts.

Hold That Line

Aquinas Institute with a 3-0 record in the season faces Bishop Timon high school this Sunday at the Mt. Read Blvd. Memorial Stadium at 2 p.m. Larry Clark, above, Aquinas right end, is scheduled to "hold that line" against the invaders from Buffalo.

KC To Honor Edward Claus

Commodore Barry Banquet

'Keep The Faith -- For Others!' Fisher Head Tells Hibernians

"Keep the Faith... not recognize God and be obedient to His laws; that he must love others," Very Rev. Charles J. Lavery, C.S.B., president of St. John Fisher College said at the annual Commodore John Barry Banquet in Minger Hotel, Wednesday of last week.

The banquet was sponsored by Monroe County Ancient Order of Hibernians and Ladies Auxiliary. Tribute to Hungarian refugees as well as those of Irish descent featured the program.

Faith among other things is a recognition of God in all things, the college president said. While the Irish may not have built many monuments of brick and stone, the Irish have "erected in the hearts of men, the Cathedral of Faith, which can be transferred across the world and across the oceans."

THE PRICE of preserving "a true humanism in the future is to keep the Faith," Father Lavery said.

"We need Christian education today to point out to man the only principles whereby peace can be made possible. With the faith that is centuries old and true, we must dedicate ourselves to know these principles better," the speaker said.

He urged that it be demonstrated that man is not merely a natural being, but one who possesses a supernatural destiny; "that he must use his intellectual abilities to the fullest capacity — shun mediocrity, conformity."

Man must "train his will to recognize God and be obedient to His laws; that he must love others," Very Rev. Charles J. Lavery, C.S.B., president of St. John Fisher College said at the annual Commodore John Barry Banquet in Minger Hotel, Wednesday of last week.

REV. GEORGE S. WOOD, AOH Chaplain presented, Father Lavery and City Court Judge Leo T. Minton was toastmaster.

A MUSICAL tribute to the Hungarian freedom fighters of three years ago was paid by Mrs. Virginia Bogdan Pados in several selections of Hungarian music. She was also heard in Irish numbers. Her accompanist was Mrs. Violetta Jolly.

Irish folk dances were presented by the Hibernian dancers and Irish songs were sung.

Verein Units To Play Cards

The Catholic Central Union (Verein) and National Catholic Women's Union will hold a card party in Most Precious Blood Church Hall, Lexington Ave., on Saturday, Nov. 7, at 8 p.m. There will be refreshments and table prizes. All are invited.
