Bishop Dedicates Mercy College

Sisters of Mercy dedicated their $1,350,000 Catherine McAuley junior college for nuns Sunday afternoon. Bishop Kearney presided at the rite which drew over 2,000 friends of the diocesan school and hospital nuns. He put a crucifix in place to symbolize the school's blessing and spoke on the need to include religion in a child's schooling. Sister Mary de Pazzi, dean, greeted guests, and a score of clergy joined the Bishop in the prayers of dedication.

Wallace-McKay Wedding Held

Marion — St. Gregory's Church, Marion, was the scene of the marriage on Saturday, Nov. 7 of Miss Margaret Louise Wallace, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul V. Wallace, Sr. of Marion, and John Douglas McKay, son of Mrs. John N. McKay of Williamson and the late M. McKay.

The Rev. Walter Carron officiated at the ceremony and nuptial Mass which followed. The bride's brother Thomas was server.

Miss Susan Wallace of Marion, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Katherine Wallace of Marion, another sister of the bride, Miss Audrey McKay, sister of the groom, of Williamson; Mrs. Gilbert DeGregory of Huntington, L.L., cousin of the bride and Mrs. Douglas Smith of Marion.

BEST MAN was James Hawthorne of Williamson and ushering the guests were Winston Verlow, Don Lessord, Charles Vermeulen and Samuel Mercurio, brother-in-law of the groom, all of Williamson.

CYO In The News

The 1959 C.Y.O. Bowling program will get underway on Saturday, Nov. 14 at 9:30 a.m. at the Columbus Civic Center Bowling Hall.

Boys and girls of grammar school age are invited to take part in this program.

A FIFTEEN week program has been planned with the first three weeks being devoted to teaching the fundamentals of bowling, scorekeeping and bowling etiquette.

Following this three week period, a handicap league will be formed and twelve weeks of actual bowling will start. Individual instruction will be given throughout league competition.

Trophies and awards will be given to individuals and teams at the completion of the twelve week program of competitive bowling.
